Every Housewife Should Know How FLASH Can Assist In the Kitchen and Other Parts of the Home

THE enamelled kettle will get burned or covered with the soot or dirt from the burning fire; the ZINC under the stove; the inside of the refrigerator; the faucets; the broiler in the gas range; the scum around the enamelled bath tub; the white painted doors get black with finger marks around the knob; and many other things too numerous to mention. Just apply FLASH with a damp cloth and then rinse off with clean water, or wipe off with a clean damp cloth. It is truly a pleasure to clean throughout the household with FLASH. Mechanics and People of all Classes find the greatest satisfaction in cleaning the hands with FLASH. Everything in it is pure and healthful and guaranteed not to injure the most delicate hands. It is made to do what soap cannot do.

Editorial.

The Asbury MENTOR, issued from the press of Newcomb & Gauss, Salem, has entered on the ninth year of its existence. Many changes have come in the Grove since it was first published. This year the Association loses one of its members by death, Mr. I. H. Higgins of Gloucester, whose genial countenance will be much missed. Mr. Blanchard, another member, has lost his only son, Luther, and their hearts are sad. Several cottage owners and friends hiring cottages have gone "over the river" since last season.

The Grove, under the management of Mr. John R. Mann, presents a neat appearance. A new cottage owned by Mrs. Gardner of Salem, has been built by Jesse Mann on Haven avenue. Improvements have been made in several of the cottages.

Two new members have been added to the Association, Mr. Fred Norton of Salem, and Mr. Kennerson of Melrose.

The line of advertisers are among the best of our business firms. Two new stores have been opened in South Hamilton, near depot, which will be a great benefit to the summer cottagers, the Boston store, and a tailoring establishment. They will endeavor to do all in their power to please their patrons.

P. L. Barrett & Co. are to run the restaurant, cafe at car station, store, bakery and hotel. They opened the cafe at car station May 28, and Decoration Day found the crowd good patrons.

WHAT WOULD THE MASTER DO?

Our invitation is to all,
Our terms are such all can pay;
A price to suit both rich and poor,
That none need stay away.
If rich, be generous with your wealth,
If poor, fear not, you're welcome too.
This rule shall be our guide and yours,
If here, "What would the Master do?"

Association Meeting.

A meeting of the Asbury Grove Association was held at the cottage of Rev. J. M. Leonard, D. D., Monday, April 19. The new District Superintendent, Rev. Mr. Sharp, presided. The following members were present: Dr. L. B. Bates, president; Rev. J. M. Leonard, D. D., secretary and treasurer; Dr. N. T. Whitaker, Rev. J. W. Higgins, Messrs. J. O. Atwood, F. Norton, C. O. Breed, E. Blanchard, E. G. Davis, C. H. Kennerson, A. S. Cassidy and George Newhall. Two new members had been added to the list of Directors. Mr. Newhall fills the place of chairman of Committee on Police, formerly occupied by Mr. I. H. Higgins, lately deceased. Resolutions were passed on the death of Mr. Higgins, who had been on the Board for a number of years.

Mr. Wm. Barrett of Melrose Highlands was given the lease of the Association buildings, the same lessee of store in 1908.

Most of the party departed on the noon train for their respective homes.

Patriots' Day at Asbury Grove

Patriots' day was first celebrated in 1894. It was formerly called Fast day and celebrated on another date.

Although the day was cloudy, quite a number availed themselves of the privilege of spending April 19 at Asbury Grove. The fact that the holiday fell on Monday gave many the opportunity of coming on Saturday, and thus giving tired mothers and their children a little breathing spell from their small quarters in the cities and towns. How glorious, three whole days to inhale God's free air, and drink in the beauties of nature. A heavy thunder shower with rain in the late afternoon and evening closed the otherwise enjoyable day.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter K. Alley of Lynn came to 22 Lee Park Saturday, April 17.

At Edgewood cottage, Kingsley avenue, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Gillespie and daughter Josephine, who had been passing the winter in South Hamilton, entertained Mrs. A. M. Harris and Master George P. Mackinnon of Beachmont, who came Friday, April 16.

No. 15 Fletcher avenue was occupied by Mrs. I. M. Chandler of Chelsea and guests, Messrs. Frank Grey and Ted Sullivan, Misses Mae Lynch and Ora Farwell, with Mrs. Frank Farwell of Lynn. They came Saturday, April 17.

Lester Tarr and Samuel Lufkin of Gloucester came Friday, April 16, to the Wigwam on McClintock avenue. Snakes seemed to be plentiful in the vicinity. Saturday April 17, the boys killed one striped adder, and early Sunday, April 18, killed nine more, making a total of ten adders killed on Morris avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Vickery and sons of West Roxbury entertained Misses Riedell of West Roxbury and Grace Bryant of Somerville at 16 Clark avenue. They came Saturday, April 17. Ralph Vickery came Saturday, April 10.

No. 47 Mudge avenue was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Higgins of East Boston, who came Saturday, April 17.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Schultz and family of Needham came Saturday, April 17, to 69 Mudge avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Emery of South Boston came to their cottage, the Wilderness, Saturday, April 17.

Mrs. Sawyer occupied the Alley cottage on Skinner avenue.

At the Nichols cottage on Clark avenue were a pleasant party comprising Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Woodworth, Misses Bessie McLane and May G. Canfield, and Major Canfield from Somerville. They came Saturday, April 17.

At 51 Mudge were Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Kenney and F. A. Kenney, who entertained Miss Edna F. Sealey of Beverly.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jewett of Ipswich came Sunday, April 18, to their cottage on Clark avenue. They have had a new piazza built.

At No. 46 Mudge was Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Nichols of Lynn.

Mrs. Fenno on Thompson avenue came April 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Trueworthy of Lynn came April 17 to No. 6 Kingsley avenue. They celebrated their Golden wedding April 30.

At No. 6 Mt. Zion, Mr. and Mrs. Hosea Sherburne entertained Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Rowe and Leslie Harris of Rockport. They came Saturday, April 17. Saturday Mr. Rowe killed eight snakes and Sunday two snakes, making ten snakes in all.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Durham came down in February to their cottage, corner of Thompson and Mudge avenues, for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Babb and daughter Margery of Lynn entertained Messrs. Ethan Chase of Boston and Clarence Gardner of Salem at 16 Mudge avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Loughhead and family of Charlestown occupied their Highland avenue cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Davis of Somerville occupied their Highland avenue cottage April 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Bodwell and son of Lynn occupied their Hedding avenue cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stanley and family of Lynn occupied their Hedding avenue cottage.

Mrs. S. McPherson and Miss Maud McPherson of Everett opened their cottage, corner of Highland and Pleasant avenues, Friday, April 16.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Cromie of Lynn came for the holidays to 22 Hamline.

At the Jackson cottage, Kingsley avenue, were Messrs. Henry C. and Fred M. Jackson of East Boston and Earl Downing of Lynn.

Mr. Thomas Horne of South Hamilton was a Sunday visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Henderson and son of Lynn visited their cottage on Fisk avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cotton and son opened their Asbury avenue cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Baker, and son Clarence Baker had as guests at their Sunnyside cottage Mr. and Mrs. James Terry and daughter and Miss Edna Cann of Everett. They came Saturday, April 17.

WHEN MAMMA MAKES BREAD.

BY ELIZA CALVERT HALL.

When my mamma makes bread at night
I help her all I can;
I climb up by the table
And hold my little pan.

And watch her while she mixes in
The flour so soft and white,
And salt and milk and sugar,
And yeast to make it light.

And then she kneads and kneads it,
Till it's smooth as it can be;
And if I'm good and do not tease,
She gives a piece to me.

I put a cover over it,
And all the dark still night,
While I am sleeping in my bed,
My bread is getting light.

Last time it baked so nice and brown,
And everybody said
When it was done, there never was
A better loaf of bread.

I reached up to the parrot's cage
And gave a piece to Polly,
Then I buttered all the rest and had
A party for my dolly.

OBITUARY.

Grieving for the death of his grandson, whose funeral he attended Sunday, Aug. 16, 1908, THEODORE A. LEWIS, of 263 Maple street, Lynn, passed away at 10 a. m., Friday, Aug. 21, in his 83d year. He was in his usual health until Monday, Aug. 17, when he began to decline rapidly. He was the last survivor of thirty-eight men who organized the Maple Street M. E. Church fifty-seven years ago, and he had not missed a Sunday service for the past fifty years. He was a class teacher for forty-three years, and superintendent of the Sunday School eleven years. He was a charter member of Glenmere lodge, I. O. O. F. He is survived by a widow, one son, William E., one daughter, Miss Josie Lewis, a brother, Benjamin F. Lewis, and eight grandchildren.

Funeral services were held from the Maple Street M. E. Church at 2.30 p. m. Sunday, Aug. 23, prayers having previously been offered at his late residence, 236 Maple street. The services were in charge of Rev. Edward E. Small of Marblehead, a former pastor of Mr. Lewis at Maple street. Chas. F. Balfour, church organist, presided at the organ. Elmer F. Humphrey, second tenor of the Laurel Male Quartette of Lynn, sang "I Need Thee Every Hour," a favorite of the deceased, and one that he requested sung at the last church service he attended, and "Just for Today." Following the church services, the members of Glenmere lodge performed their ritualistic services, Vice Grand Fred B. Bryant and Chaplain Wilbur S. Patten officiating. The ushers of the church were Messrs. Arthur J. Blood, Henry C. Paul and Walter A. Vaughn.

There were many beautiful floral tributes from relatives and friends, including Easter lilies from the Maple Street M. E. Church, a large basket of chrysanthemums from his Tuesday night class, a piece from the High Street Free Baptist Church, and another from the Ladies' Aid Society of the same church, one from Glenmere Lodge 139, I. O. O. F. Beside his casket was a spray of pansies, his favorite flower, he having plucked it only a few days before his death.

The pallbearers were Daniel Trueworthy and Charles F. Richardson, representing the Maple Street M. E. Church; Eben Townsend, P. G., Oliver R. Furbish, P. G., representing Glenmere Lodge of Odd Fellows, of which the deceased was a member and a former chaplain. The lodge escorted the remains to Pine Grove cemetery.

Mr. Lewis was born in Gravesend, now Glenmere, Feb. 9, 1827, and was the son of James and Melinda (Short) Lewis, a lineal descendant of Edmund Lewis, one of the earliest settlers of Lynn, coming in 1638, and for whom Lewis street was named. In early life, between fifteen and sixteen years of age, he united with St. Paul's M. E. Church, Woodsend, now East Lynn, but when the Maple Street M. E. Church was organized, in 1850, he joined them, and was a member fifty-eight years; also an official; a class leader forty years; and has served as steward, and had the care of the communion; a Sunday School superintendent and teacher. He was present at the semi-centennial of the church in 1890, Rev. Edward E. Small then pastor, and was given the seat of honor.

Besides a widow, he leaves a son, William H. Lewis, who succeeds his father as superintendent of the Sunday School, and one daughter, Miss Josie B. Lewis. Another daughter, the wife of Rev. Charles M. Melden, president of Wesleyan Academy, passed away several years ago. He also leaves several grandchildren. He was twice married.

Mr. Lewis in early life was an old-time shoemaker, and later took up stock-fitting. He had worked for many old-time Lynn manufacturers, among them being the late Edwin Johnson, with whom he was quite intimate. He gave up active service about ten years ago. Mr. Lewis was a charter member of Glenmere Lodge, Lynn, Sept. 3, 1885.—Lynn Item.

He formerly owned "The Birdsnest," 15 Kingsley avenue, where he and his family spent many happy hours.

MRS. AMANDA E. RICH, widow of Charles I. Rich, died of heart disease at her home, 30 Dartmouth street, Friday evening, Oct. 2, after a very short illness, aged 49 years. Mrs. Rich retired about nine o'clock enjoying fairly good health although she had been troubled with her heart for some time. She had been in bed about ten minutes when stricken and called for her son, Charles T. Rich, who was in an adjoining room. He responded quickly, and on seeing her condition ran to the first floor for medicine. Mrs. Rich left her bed and followed her son down stairs, and when she reached the kitchen where he was preparing the medicine, was overcome and fell on the floor. Dr. Thompson was called, but medical aid was of no avail and she passed away a few minutes after he arrived. Mrs. Rich was born in East Boston and had been a resident of Malden for the past 22 years. She was very well known, being a member of the Center Methodist church, Crystal chapter, order Eastern star, and the Women's auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. A son, Charles T. Rich, and a daughter, Miss Edith E. Rich, besides a host of friends, are left to mourn her loss. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Lewis B. Bates, D. D., of East Boston, a close friend of the family, officiated, and Miss Carrie V. Malcolm rendered "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere", "Crossing the Bar", "Nearer, My God, to Thee", and "Lead, Kindly Light". The house was filled with relatives and friends and there were many

Memorial Day at Asbury Grove

May 30 was an ideal day. The largest crowd for years was found on the grounds.

Several base ball teams were present, and base ball seemed to be the day's amusement. The Calvary Baptist team from Salem and that of the First Baptist from Lynn, with lady friends came on a special car about 11 a. m. The chapel was made their headquarters where a basket lunch was partaken of. They numbered about 70, and all seemed to thoroughly enjoy themselves. The Tilton Athletic Club of Winthrop and the Swampscotts played a game. The Asbury Groves and Wenham played a game on the ball field.

Many of the cottages displayed flags. The Marblehead party occupying the cottage corner of Mudge avenue and Lee Park, had their cottage beautifully decorated. Mr. Eaton occupying the Burgess cottage, Highland avenue, displayed a huge Japanese umbrella and flags. The young people had a most enjoyable time visiting Idlewood, and other places in the vicinity.

Several of the church houses were open over Sunday.

AROUND THE CIRCLE.

BASE BALL.

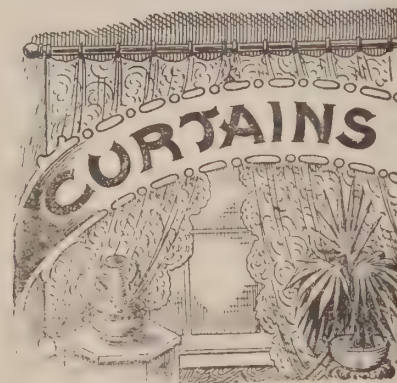

On Memorial day the Tilton Athletic Club of the First church of Winthrop, Methodist Episcopal, defeated the Swampscott A. A. by a score of 13 to 8. The game was interesting throughout and the Tilton club showed some excellent team work, and though they used three pitchers, each one of them proved effective. W. Belcher struck out five men in two innings. Rev. Charles Tilton is the pastor for whom the club is named.

The names of the party may be found under Memorial day notes. The young people had a magnificent time. They visited Idlewood, where games of different kinds were indulged in. The ladies of the party left in the late afternoon, but the pastor and the young men put in "one more night" in old Asbury. May they all be there next season.

Another interesting game was played by the Calvary Baptist team of Salem and the Banner Bible Class of First Baptist church of Lynn. About seventy came in a special car at 11 a. m. Mr. Rowe, the Sunday School superintendent of Calvary Baptist accompanied them. The score was 12 to 10 in favor of Lynn. The young ladies and the boys of Salem had a game later. The score was 9 to 0.

Still another game was played by the Asbury Grove and Wenham teams in the ball field. The score was 5 to 4 in favor of Asbury Grove.

MRS. GRACE D. ARNOLD, wife of Mr. Charles S. Arnold of East Boston, passed away at her parents' home, 294 Meridian street, East Boston, Thursday, Oct. 22, 1908, at the age of 36 years. She had been ill for some time, but at the last the end came suddenly, though not unexpected.

Mrs. Arnold was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hayes, and was born in Bath, Maine. She was a member of the old Walnut Street M. E. Church, Chelsea, now Cary avenue. She married Charles S. Arnold of Chelsea about seventeen years ago. Three children were born to them, all of whom have gone on before.

Besides her husband and parents, she leaves two sisters, Mrs. Frank Waters of Winthrop and Miss Bessie Hayes of East Boston.

The funeral services were held at 294 Meridian street, Saturday, at 2 p. m., Rev. C. H. Atkins, her pastor, of the Saratoga Street M. E. Church, officiating. He spoke from the words, "For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better, nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you."

"It is the knowledge of sorrow patiently and trustingly borne that endears the memory of this departed one to those of us who knew her. The seventeen years of her married life were years in which she was called to test a Saviour's sufficiency in sorrow as well as joy, and it reconciles us in a measure to the varying vicissitudes of human life to know that the Great Master was her satisfying portion in these last days of suffering, as he was before. I firmly believe that this loving daughter, this affectionate wife, this loyal friend, in her new found home to-day echoes this testimony of the apostles Heaven and all the blessed realities of the life beyond will seem differently to you, bereaved ones, than they have ever before. Into your hearts will steal a very sweet conviction that after all this world, with its partings and separations, is not a true home. And it is the blessed assurance that Jesus went to prepare an abiding place for us which makes us turn from our sorrow in times like this, and looking into our heavenly Father's face, believe that all is well.

Trust, then, and not be afraid, now the parting, now the loss,

Then the welcome, then the gain.

Now the lengthening shadows and the evening psalm,
Then the glory, light, and the victor's palm.

So long His power hath blest us, sure it still will lead us on.

O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till the night is gone.

And with the morn those angel faces smile

Which we have loved so dearly here, and lost awhile.

Tenderly, thoughtfully, hopefully, we will take our leave of one whose life has awakened new inspirations in ours, and reverently wait to meet her at the breaking of the day."

Many beautiful floral emblems were given by family and friends. The burial was at Woodlawn, where the usual services were held by the pastor, Rev. Charles H. Atkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold had been summer visitors for a number of years at Asbury Grove, at one time occupying 2 Merrill avenue.

MRS. LYDIA ALICE BURGESS, wife of George F. Burgess of Lynn, passed away at 11.25 o'clock Wednesday evening, Oct. 28, 1908, at her residence, 4 Beacon Hill avenue, at the age of 53 years. She was born in Lynn, Sept. 8, 1855, in the homestead on Park street, and was the daughter of George and Mary Spinney, and owned the Burgess cottage on Highland avenue, Asbury Grove. Beside her husband, she leaves two sons, Walter Howard Burgess, superintendent of foundry in car works at Laconia, N. H., and captain of Company K, 2d N. H. Infantry, George S. Burgess, then of Lynn School Board, now, May 1, chief clerk of Superintendent's department, and one daughter, Miss Alice May Burgess of Lynn. She was an active member of the First Congregational church, corner of Vine and South Common streets, was president for ten or twelve years of the Ladies Aid Society. She was an active worker at the May breakfasts, and had charge of the First Congregational table. Funeral services were held at her late residence, 40 Beacon Hill avenue, Saturday, Oct. 31, 1908.

Association Notes.

The Swedish Campmeeting Association held a meeting Wednesday, May 26, at the cottage of Rev. S. S. Carlander, pastor of Swedish M. E. Church, Lynn, on Asbury avenue. It was decided to enlarge the Tabernacle on Skinner avenue, and have better accommodations for eating during the Swedish camp-meeting in the early part of August. The Association has no debt.

Thursday, May 27, a meeting of Asbury Grove Camp Meeting Association was held in the Leonard-Higgins cottage on Pleasant avenue. Rev. L. B. Bates, D. D., president, presided. Rev. A. P. Sharp, district superintendent; Secretary and Treasurer Rev. J. M. Leonard, D. D., Rev. A. M. Osgood, Rev. J. W. Higgins, Messrs. E. W. Blanchard, Fred A. Norton, M. Robson, E. G. Davis, were present. The chaplain for the summer will be Rev. George Whittaker. Evangelist Harrison will be at the Grove during camp meeting, and Evangelist Smith of Winthrop will have charge of the music. The Lynn District Epworth League will have its convention in the Grove Labor Day. Among other good things spoken of was that of finding out the cost of installing electric lights in Asbury Grove.

Sad Drowning Accident.

One of the saddest drowning accidents for years occurred at Middleton, April 19. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Norton of Salem had a summer cottage on the shore of Middleton pond and on Patriot's Day with several friends opened their cottage for the day's outing. Victor M. Durgin, automobile editor of the Boston Traveller was their guest for the day.

During the afternoon they launched a steel canoe and paddled Mrs. Norton and daughter across to the opposite shore and then started to return. Heavy black clouds were rolling across the sky, presaging a thunder storm, but both men, and Mrs. Norton as well, were experts at the paddle and none felt any alarm. Suddenly a terrific wind squall swept across the pond. The light canoe with its heavy load of dress suit cases, etc., belonging to six other young Salem couples, which had been piled into the canoe to save carrying, careened threateningly and nearly went over. The men exerted all their strength to reach the shore before the storm came on.

Then with a sudden roar the storm broke. Heavy peals of thunder with vivid lightning accompanied the storm. Suddenly the wind changed and all four were struggling in the water. The alarmed watchers on the shore saw the over-turned canoe seemingly lifted bodily above the waves and dashed down at the heads of the quartette fighting for their lives. Durgin dived below the steel craft and tried to rescue Mrs. Norton and baby. He seized hold of her clothing and started for land. It seemed to the watchers on shore that he was struck on the head by the canoe, for suddenly they all disappeared. Apparently Durgin was stunned by the blow, for he was an expert swimmer.

A number of people witnessed the tragedy from the shore, but none of them could swim. Norton was trying to rescue his wife and child, but was fast losing consciousness, when Matthew M. Merritt, chairman of the Middleton board of Selectmen, ran from the veranda of his cottage on the shore and plunged into the pond. He fought his way to the overturned canoe, and managed to get a hold on Norton, now unconscious, and soon reached the shore.

By this time others had launched boats, and in a few moments the bodies of Mrs. Norton and her baby girl and Victor Durgin were recovered. Dr. Ewing and others tried every known means of resuscitation, but they could find no signs of life.

When Norton was brought back to consciousness and learned of the death of his wife and child, he was so crazed by grief that he temporarily lost his reason.

Loren Estey and Wallace Peabody were instrumental in recovering the bodies.

Ernest W. Norton is the brother of Fred Norton of Appleton & Norton, the well-known insurance men and one of the Asbury Grove Camp Meeting Association members, with a cottage on Asbury avenue, Asbury Grove.

Victor M. Durgin was the son of Mrs. Medora F. (Durgin) Patten and the late Dr. Frank A. Durgin. He was born in Salem, 23 years ago last September. His father was a young physician, a member of the original staff of the Salem hospital, who died when Victor was quite young, and his mother is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mooney. Victor made his home with his mother and stepfather, and the family lived in the same house, 52 Buffum street, with Mrs. Patten's parents.

Victor was idolized by his mother, his stepfather thought the world of him, the two were almost constant companions, he was dearly beloved by his grandparents, and from his boyhood he was a general favorite with his schoolmates and all who knew him. He graduated from the Salem High school, was a good scholar, and was also prominent on the football team and in athletic sports. He was of a fine, rugged physique. He was for two or three years bookkeeper in the office of the Boston American, but for some months had been automobile editor of the Boston Traveller. The same kindly and helpful spirit that characterized him in his boyhood days, he carried with him into his business life, and there he was universally respected.

He was the life of any company, and in the work of Wesley church he was foremost in both the Sunday school and the church. Hardly any social function of the church was complete without him, and there were few better young men anywhere than Victor Durgin, if there were any. He was a member of Essex Lodge, F. & A. M., and of the Okahawis canoe club of Beverly. He took part in a recent dramatic entertainment of the Emerson club, and was deeply interested in that work. He leaves a mother, a stepfather, and grandfather and grandmother.

Mrs. Ernest W. Norton was born in Beverly, her maiden name being Isabel Be-sie Groce, she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Groce of Beverly. She was about 26 years of age. Mr. and Mrs. Norton were married in Salem, Dec. 6, 1905, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Wilbur N. Mason of Wesley church. Their daughter, Annie Woodbury Norton, was about two and a half years old.

Mr. Norton and Mr. Durgin had been close friends from boyhood, and both were elected stewards at the last quarterly conference. Mrs. Norton was also an active member of Wesley church.

The triple funeral was held in Wesley church, Salem, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Previous to the church service Rev. Dr. Fessenden, offered prayers at the home of Mrs. Norton, 168 North street, and at the home of Mr. Durgin's mother, Mrs. Medora F. Patten, 52 Buffum street.

The services at the church consisted of reading of the Scriptures and the beautiful poem, "Laus Mortis," written by the late Frederic Lawrence Knowles, and prayer by Rev. Dr. Fessenden, and remarks by Rev. Frederick H. Knight, D. D., of Boston, formerly their pastor.

The choir quartette, William A. Staples, Miss Mabel Pearl, Mrs. Charles S. Brown and Albert H. Millett, sang "A Starry Crown," "Lead Kindly Light," and "Crossing the Bar." William Miller Bartlett was at the organ and played as the prelude, "Prayer," by L. Wely, and for the postlude "Chopin's Funeral March." The music was under the direction of Reuben E. Dockham.

The floral tributes were profuse, among them being remembrances from Wesley church, the official board, the Sunday school, King's Daughters, Epworth League, clerks in the Merchants' National Bank, Boston, The Boston Traveller, Essex Lodge, F. & A. M., the Emerson Club of the Universalist church and many others.

The ushers at the church were A. F. Titus, J. C. Robson, Mr. Meredith, Wm. Matthews, Horace Hewlett, Albert Mackintire, Frank Pitman, Frank W. Ward and Caleb H. Morse.

The pall bearers were, for Mr. Durgin, James L. Roope and Guy N. Folkins of Essex lodge, F. & A. M.; E. Foster Knight, Garritt DeW. Clark, Mr. Peabody, Albert H. Barnett, Chas. F. Towne and Reuben E. Dockham.

For Mrs. Norton and her daughter Anna: Fred Bodge, Charles S. Grush, Charles R. Dearborn, Henry C. Harden, William P. Pickering and Stewart J. Smith.

The burial was in Greenlawn cemetery, the body of Mr. Durgin being laid in the Mooney family lot, and those of Mrs. Norton and her child in the Norton family lot. The commitment service at the Norton lot was conducted by Rev. Dr. Fessenden, and the officers of Essex lodge, F. & A. M., officiated at the grave of Mr. Durgin in the Mooney lot.—Salem News.

Double Bereavement.

It is seldom that so great a sorrow comes to a family in Salem, but such was the sad case March 12. Mrs. Sarah M. Berry, aged 85, died Friday morning at 7 o'clock at her home 20 Boardman street, and her daughter, Mrs. Abbie A. Sanborn, died Friday evening at 9 o'clock in the same house, in her 60th year. The mother was taken sick the week previous with the grip and the daughter became ill Sunday, March 7, with bronchial pneumonia.

Mrs. Berry was born in Lynn, Oct. 26, 1823, and was one of six children—five daughters and a son—of the late Nathaniel and Abigail (Pickett) Parrott. Her father was a native of Lynn, but her mother was born in Marblehead, and Mrs. Berry's grandfather, Capt. Melzeard was a revolutionary officer, and crossed the Delaware with Washington. She was educated in Lynn, and April 16, 1840, before she was 17 years of age, she married Capt. Eben Berry of Salem, and came to this city to live. He died several years ago. Her husband followed the sea, commanding vessels in the coasting trade, running between Salem and Eastern and Southern ports. She went with him several years, and she used to say: "Many a time have I stood at the wheel and steered the vessel." Eight children were born of the union, only one of whom, Engineer Charles E. Berry of Salem is now living. Mrs. Berry leaves, however, 11 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Elmira Alley of Lynn, 88 years of age. Up to her last sickness Mrs. Berry had been remarkably active for one of her age, and retained to a remarkable degree all of her faculties.

Mrs. Sanborn was born in Salem, and was in her 60th year. She was the widow of Edward D. Sanborn, and she was greatly esteemed by a large circle of friends. She leaves two sons, Edward R. and William H. Sanborn, and three daughters, Mrs. Annie F. Woodbury, Mrs. Frank Phillips and Miss A. Mabel Sanborn of Salem; 10 grandchildren, and a brother, Charles E. Berry.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, March 14, at their late home, 20 Boardman street, Rev. Chas. H. Puffer, D. D. of the Universalist church, officiated. The floral tributes were profuse and beautiful. The burial was in Greenlawn cemetery.—Salem News.

Mrs. Sanborn and Mrs. Berry were visitors to the Grove last season and as far as mortal eye could see, had the promise of many more years to come. Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Sanborn's daughter, was in Rutland at the time for the benefit of her health, and we are happy to say, is now at Asbury Grove with her family, to whom all her friends sincerely hope she may be spared for a long, long time.

Gone Over the River.

MR. I. H. HIGGINS, one of the best known residents of Gloucester, and for many years identified with Asbury Grove, being one of the members of Asbury Grove Camp Meeting Association, and chief of police at that place for a number of years, also closely identified with the boat building industry in Gloucester, died at the Addison Gilbert Hospital, Saturday, Jan. 9, at 8 a. m., as the result of a complication of diseases. He had been ill for some time, but was taken worse Thursday evening, Jan. 7, and by the advice of Dr. Knowles, was taken to the hospital Friday, Jan. 8. He lost consciousness, and passed away in that condition. He was born in Eastham, March 16, 1838, and was 70 years, 9 months, 23 days.

Mr. Higgins was a master boat builder, and was employed in Provincetown for a number of years. He came to Gloucester in November, 1871, and formed a copartnership with the late A. T. Gifford in the boat building business on Parker street, and remained in the business until the death of Mr. Gifford, in 1894. The firm was then incorporated, and Mr. Higgins became the general manager of the Higgins & Gifford Boat Manufacturing Co. Many boats went out from the busy shop, built by skilled workmen, including seine boats, small yachts, and fruit boats especially designed for the West India fruit business, also many surf boats for the United States government.

Last spring Mr. Higgins went to Vermont to take a spring water cure, and returned about August, 1908, or before camp meeting, apparently very much better, but the improvement was not lasting.

He was for many years a prominent member of the Prospect Street M. E. Church, but after his wife's death transferred his membership to the East Gloucester church, being Sunday School superintendent for a long time. This was his church home at the time of his decease.

He was a strong foe of the liquor traffic in any form, an active member in the ranks of the Temple of Honor, a Past Grand Worthy Templar of Massachusetts, and a member of the Supreme Council.

Mr. Higgins was past chancellor commander of Constantine Lodge, Knights of Pythias, a past commander of St. Angelo Commandery, Knights of Malta, and held other offices in these lodges.

He possessed great ingenuity, being of an inventive turn of mind, and added many devices to the crafts which were built in his yard to add to their stability and seaworthiness.

Mr. Higgins married Harriet N. White of Provincetown, who was a faithful co-worker with him in the Prospect St. M. E. Church. She died in 1894. Two sons survive, C. Lothrop Higgins of Boston, the well known travel lecturer and milliner, and Elmer Higgins, a Christian Science practitioner at the time of his father's death in South Bend, Indiana.

Funeral services were held by the Temple of Honor at Lloyd's undertaking rooms at 12.30 o'clock, Monday, Jan. 11, after which the body was taken to Provincetown on the 1.20 p. m. train for burial beside that of his wife.—Daily Times.

At the anniversary meeting in Jesse Lee Hall, last season (1908), Mr. Higgins was present and gave many interesting reminiscences of old camp meeting days at Eastham, saying he was there fifty years ago. We did not then think that before another camp meeting he would be translated to the other life, and would see that dear Saviour "face to face," of whom he truly loved to speak and sing. We will miss him this season, and mostly through camp meeting.

MR. CHARLES H. MORGAN, of Lynn, passed away Friday afternoon, March 12, at 2.30 p. m. He was taken ill on the street Monday, March 8, and was taken to a private hospital on Union street. His home was at the corner of Ridgeway and Mt. Pleasant streets, Lynn. The deceased was born April 7, 1837, and was 71 years, 11 months, 5 days. He was a Grand Army man. Enlisted Aug. 18, 1864, in Co. B, 4th Mass, V. A.; discharged June 17, 1865; joined Gen. Lander Post 5, Aug. 7, 1873. Besides his wife, he leaves one son, Charles Morgan of Foxboro, and one granddaughter, Miss Alice Morgan of Lynn, one brother and four nieces of Yarmouth, Maine; also three nephews, one of Portland, Maine, and two in the Morgan bakery, Beverly, and several grand-nieces and grand-nephews.

Mr. Morgan was the son of the late William and Ruth (Conant) Morgan of Beverly. He was twice married. His first wife was Susan McFarland, by whom he had two sons and a daughter. One son passed away several years ago; also his daughter. His present wife was Sarah Davis of Lynn.

He lived in Springfield two years, going from there to Beverly, and afterwards to Lynn, where he has since resided. He worked in several shoe factories in Lynn.

Funeral services were held at St. Paul's M. E. Church, Sunday, March 14, at 2.45 p. m. Rev. Donald H. Gerrish, pastor of St. Paul's, conducted the services, and paid a touching tribute to the Christian life of the departed one. Mrs. Mary St. Clair sang, "He Knows the Way," and "The Good-Bye Time." The Grand Army service followed, conducted by the officers of Gen. Lander Post, No. 5, G. A. R. Many floral remembrances were sent from relatives and friends, among which was a large standing piece from the church board, of which the deceased had been the oldest member. He had been a member of St. Paul's for over thirty years. The pallbearers were Messrs. George Waite, Thomas Cloon, Albert Jenkins, and John Ferguson of Gen. Lander Post. He was buried in the family lot in Pine Grove cemetery, on Hale street, Beverly.

Mr. Morgan has owned cottages on McClintock avenue, Asbury Grove, for many years, and in later years he did "jobbing" for the cottagers during the summer months. He was a faithful friend and husband. His wife was an invalid, and his one thought was for her comfort. She now makes her home with her sister and niece, Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Hutt, at 31 Greenwood terrace, Swampscott.

MRS. MARY ELIZABETH SPILLER, widow of Capt. David Spiller, passed away at dawn Saturday morning, April 17, after many months of feebleness. Mrs. Spiller was a native of Ipswich, the eldest child of the late Samuel and Lucy (Caldwell) Hunt, about 73 years of age. Her husband was killed on the railroad at Mystic River bridge about thirty-one years ago. She leaves one sister, Miss Abbie L. Hunt, also a sister by adoption, Mrs. Jennie Spiller, whose childhood was spent in the Hunt family.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, April 20, from her home on North Main street. Rev. A. P. Gifford, pastor of the M. E. Church, was in charge. This was her church for many years. He read passages from the Bible and offered prayer. "A Vision," an exquisite and appropriate poem, was read by the pastor. The hymns, "My Jesus, as Thou wilt," and "Abide with Me," were sung by Miss M. E. Atherly, Mrs. Harriet Gove Shaw, and Messrs. Dexter and Burnham.

Upon the casket lay a single great sheaf of callas, which covered almost its entire length, while all about were pinks, roses, Easter lilies, and other floral tributes from many friends.

The interment was at Locust Grove cemetery, beside the husband for whom she has mourned sincerely for more than thirty years.

The sisters, Mrs. Spiller and Miss Hunt, occupied their cottage on Central avenue, Asbury Grove, part of the season of 1908, where they had many friends.

THE BIG STORE AT SALEM.

The annual mid-summer Linen Sale at Almy, Bigelow & Washburn's is now at its height. Exceptionally fine bargains are offered in table linens, dress linens, towels, crashes, sheets, pillow cases, quilts, blankets, comfortables, etc. It is an event planned especially for the North Shore Summer trade, and cottagers at the Grove will find it well worth their attendance.

This sale is considered of more than ordinary importance, because it includes a portion of a large purchase of beautiful Irish table linens, pattern cloths and napkins, secured by their buying agent, the Syndicate Trading Co. of N. Y. While there has been a heavy trade daily since the opening of this big sale, there still remains plenty of splendid bargains in all grades of linens and domestics, which every woman will appreciate. Now is the time to attend.

The A. B. & W. Sewing Machine Dept. is offering special inducements during the summer season both in the little hand machines which can easily be carried in the vacation trunk, and the regular size sewing machines for summer homes. Those who already are machine owners, yet do not wish to bother with the shipping of their machines from winter to summer homes can make arrangements at A. B. & W.'s for the rental of a satisfactory machine for any length of time.

We would be glad if it were in our power to invite every "stammering tongue" without money and without price; but as we cannot, we will do the next best thing by terms that all can pay.

WHAT WOULD THE MASTER DO?

Our invitation is to all.

Our terms are such all can pay;

A price to suit both rich and poor,

That none need stay away.

If rich, be generous with your wealth,

If poor, fear not, you're welcome too.

This rule shall be our guide and yours,

If here, "What would the Master do?"

Grand Picnic, August 6.

President W. H. Taft has accepted an invitation to an outing at Point of Pines at which Governor Draper, Mayor Hibbard, mayors of many cities, congressmen and others will be present. All churches of all denominations are invited to participate. Scores of churches have agreed to do so. Special tickets of admission to the grounds can be had of Mr. Geo. Whitaker at Room 4, 36 Bromfield St., Boston, at 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children. No children's tickets can be purchased at railroad station or at entrance to the grounds. It will be a basket picnic, and athletic sports will be provided in abundance. The welcome of the President will be at 3 p. m. The children will have a part in this welcome and are desired to meet Mrs. Carter at 10 a. m. for a rehearsal of their part. A member of each participating church or its pastor will be on the Committee of Reception.

It will be a pleasant outing for Visitors to Asbury Grove, who will never regret participating in this royal good time.

Independence Day at Asbury Grove.

Saturday evening, July 3, a huge bonfire was the chief attraction, and about the whole Grove turned out to enjoy it.

Sunday July 4

Sunday School services were held in the chapel at 10.30 a. m. The collection was $1.65; there were 115 present.

At 2.30 p. m. patriotic services were held in the circle. At 2.30 p. m. the first open air service of the season, a very large audience greeted Chaplain Whitaker. The stand in the circle was decorated with eight large American flags, the pulpit itself being covered with folds of the flag. The front of the platform was further beautified with wild flowers and greenery, the work of the First M. E. Church at Jesse Lee Hall, Chaplain Whitaker presided, and Mr. Melville was organist. The exercises opened with singing by a congregation of 450 people of "Onward, Christian Soldiers!" Prayer was offered by the chaplain, Dr. Whitaker. A "Salute to the Flag" was given by a company of children, who were briefly addressed by Dr. Whitaker. Mrs. Cora Ashdown of Linden sang "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," the congregation joining in the chorus. The "Declaration of Independence" was read by Mrs. Nettie Ruttle, followed by the "Sword of Bunker Hill," sung by Mr. H. W. Eaton of Salem. The "Address of President Lincoln at Gettysburg" was read by Miss L. Josephine Gillespie. The "Battle Hymn of the Republic," was sung by Miss Sarah Speare. "The Star Spangled Banner," the audience joining in the chorus.

Chaplain Whitaker's patriotic address was from Proverbs xiv:34,—the theme being "Righteousness Exalteth a Nation." He said "There is no substitute for righteousness. We are told that several things will answer as substitutes, but they have all failed. It is this only that elevates the country. Greece stood by philosophy and art, but Greece is now ancient history. Other cities have passed into history, through lack of righteousness. Dissipation brought dissolution. America is a christian nation, and its history is an application of righteous principles." A shower coming up, the services were brought to an abrupt conclusion, the singing of "America" being postponed till the evening service.

The evening service at 7.30 was an interesting one and largely attended. The patriotic song "America," being sung with much spirit.

Monday, July 5

FLAG RAISING.

The first event of the morning was the flag raising at 8 o'clock at Jesse Lee Hall. The exercises were under charge of W. O.

Raymond Howe of Lynn. The opening Hymn "America" was finely sung by the large audience, Miss Sarah Speare, leader. Mr. Howe announced that the flag had been presented by Mrs. Frank Hill, matron at the Hall; he then introduced the Chaplain of the Grove, who spoke of the growing interest in the flag of our country, as in every revolving year it represents higher ideals, purer motives sublimer achievements of our countrymen. He illustrated his subject by recent movements in the Philippines and its rapidly developing world power. After this Miss Sarah Speare sang "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," the people joining in chorus. Miss Zelmer Louise Andrews recited very prettily "Apostrophe to the Flag." The flag was unfurled by Miss Andrews and raised by Mr. Frank Hill. Miss Sarah Speare led in the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner," amid the cheers and salutes of the people. Jesse Lee Hall was prettily decorated with flags and lanterns and potted plants.

THE PARADE.

This was the best of the kind ever seen in Asbury Grove. Good Time.

JUNE 15.

The annual outing of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Trinity M. E. Church, Lynn, took place at Asbury Grove, Tuesday, June 15; the Society were the guests of Mrs. Eliza Frey, at her Fisk avenue cottage. They arrived on the 11 a. m. electric, and enjoyed one of the pleasantest days of the season here under the pines. Mrs. Frey entertained royally, and a bountiful dinner was served. The swings in the circle were well filled, and walks around the Grove much enjoyed. Singing and social chat, etc., made the afternoon pass only too quickly, the party returning to Lynn in the evening. Those present were Mrs. William Perkins, the president; Mrs. F. J. Hale, wife of pastor; Mrs. Martha Wilkins, Mrs. Susie Sanborn, Mrs. Wm. Woodfall, Mrs. Florence Woodward, Mrs. Lena Carney, Mrs. Maria Tuttle, Mrs. F. W. Stevens, Mrs. M. J. Rogers and Addie Jaquith.

JUNE 17.

The Wesley church picnic was the grand event of the year to the church and Sunday School. They came in five special cars, reaching Asbury Grove about 10.30 a. m., and was the largest and happiest crowd of the season. Mr. Titus, the superintendent, was unfortunately prevented by sickness from being present. The pastor, Rev. C. W. Fessenden, Messrs. Dockham and Willard had charge. The Grove chapel was made their headquarters. From there some of the picnickers went to Idlewood and Vineyard Hill. A feature of the early morning was a procession formed of the men of the party, who marched around the Grove to the music of the flute played by Messrs. Dockham and Haffchee. Basket lunch was partaken of in the Grove near the Chapel.

Several games were played in the morning, but the game of the day was the one of base ball by the Married Men and Single Men. They comprised the following parties: Married Men's Team---Rev. J. W. Fessenden, R. E. Dockham, E. Sumner, E. F. Curtis, James Roope, W. S. Palmer, Fred Norton, Mr. Batchelder, H. E. Hulett. Single Men's Team---T. Pedrick, E. Soper, W. Mathews, Messrs. Willard, Holmes, Phalen, McDonald, Harrigan and Nelson. The score was 23 to 7 in favor of the Benedicts.

Fred R. Willard had charge of the sports in the morning. The younger people took part in the running, potato and sack races. C. H. Goss, assist. superintendent was one of the party in charge.

Some of the party went at 4 p. m., others departed later. They had a glorious time.

JULY 4

Nine members of the Pratt class of the Cary avenue Sunday School spent the holiday over the Fourth at the Saratoga St. E. Boston church tent for Saturday and Sunday nights. A friend was present with them.

Eight of the boys had a rowing contest on Idlewood lake early Monday morning. H. Winsor, J. Nelson and A. Quinn manned the boat, winning first prize. A. Sturkey, R. Norton and H. Flemming came in second; Percy and Harold Lovewell, third.

Other contests took place in the Grove shortly after, viz: Shot put, P. Lovewell, first prize; H. Winsor, second prize; H. Lovewell, third prize, A. Quinn; fourth prize.

Running hop, skip and jump---H. Winsor, first prize; J. Nicholls, second prize; P. Lovewell, third prize.

Standing hop, skip and jump---H. Winsor, first prize; J. Nicholls, second prize; H. Lovewell, third prize.

Broad jump---H. Winsor, first prize; J. Nicholls, second prize; H. Lovewell, third prize.

Sixty yard dash---J. Nicholls, first prize; H. Winsor, second prize; H. Lovewell, third prize.

Later in the day they had a ball game with members of the boys' class of Mt. Bellingham S. S., the Pratt class winning the game by score of 22 to 9.

The trip was enjoyed by all.

THE enamelled kettle will get burned or covered with the soot or dirt from the burning fire; the ZINC under the stove; the inside of the refrigerator; the faucets; the broiler in the gas range; the scum around the enamelled bath tub; the white painted doors get black with finger marks around the knob; and many other things too numerous to mention. Just apply FLASH with a damp cloth and then rinse off with clean water, or wipe off with a clean damp cloth. It is truly a pleasure to clean throughout the household with FLASH. Mechanics and People of all Classes find the greatest satisfaction in cleaning the hands with FLASH. Everything in it is pure and healthful and guaranteed not to injure the most delicate hands.

We would be glad if it were in our power to invite every "stammering tongue" without money and without price; but as we cannot, we will do the next best thing by terms that all can pay.

WHAT WOULD THE MASTER DO?

Our invitation is to all.

Our terms are such all can pay;

A price to suit both rich and poor,

That none need stay away.

If rich, be generous with your wealth.

If poor, fear not, you're welcome too.

This rule shall be our guide and yours.

If here, "What would the Master do?"

Automobile Parties.

There have been several parties who came in their automobiles to visit Mrs. Gardiner's new cottage on Haven avenue. One party came from Lynn and Salem to see her new home and another came Sunday, June 6, and comprised Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mooney and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Porter of North Salem. They were delighted with her surroundings.

Pleasant Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Highland street have been entertaining Mr. R. P. Newman of Haverhill, an old comrade of Mr. Lewis; they were chums in war time; enjoyed each other's company for a week and smoked the pipe of peace. Other guests have been Mrs. M. G. Dennison of Back Bay, Boston, with her two daughters, Misses Dolly and Mildred, daughter and granddaughter of the host and hostess, who spent two pleasant weeks, afterwards going to Bar Harbor.

The Grove library was closed Thursday, Aug. 5, in observance of the passing of the chairman of the library committee, Rev. Raymond S. Walker.

Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Surrounded by loving friends who came to extend their felicitations to them on account of their passing the half-century stone of wedded life, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Trueworthy observed their golden wedding at their home at the corner of Maple and Chestnut streets, Friday evening, April 30.

From 7 to 10 o'clock a reception was held, when a large number of the members of the Maple street church called to congratulate them, and in the throng were noted many of the residents of other parts of the city.

The guests were presented to the happy couple by Robert Haskell and James W. Hunt, both of Lynn and each visitor stopped a moment to express delight at being privileged to grasp them by the hand and wish them God speed on their journey toward their diamond wedding.

While the reception was in progress a dainty wedding lunch was served by Miss Elizabeth Sinclair and Miss Abbie B. Foster who saw that all were served with the ices and fancy cakes of the repast.

Mrs. James W. Hunt presided over the guest book and upon its pages were seen many prominent in the religious, social and political life of the city.

The parlors where the reception was held was converted into a bower of beauty by the lavish use of cut flowers that gave an added touch of beauty to the scene.

The popularity of the couple was shown by the large number of gifts of gold and china which was showered upon them, the gift room being filled with them. An especial gift was that of $50 in gold from the parishioners of the Maple Street church where both are members and where Mr. Trueworthy has occupied many positions of honor.

Rev. and Mrs. O. C. Poland graced the occasion with their presence and presented their congratulations to the couple in their journey in happy, Christian, wedded life. The following original poem was read by Mrs. Martha A. McCulloch:

Full fifty years have passed away
Of calm and stormy weather,
Since our dear friends in youth set out
To climb life's hill together.

And many blessings well deserved,
Upon them have been shed
Since that bright day so long ago
When they were newly wed.

Long may they live and happy dwell,
Child and grand-children be their joy,
And all life's blessings come without
One drop of grief's alloy.

And she who cast her fate with his
In spring-time young and early,
Has found him gentle, steadfast, kind,
True-worthy.

Together down the hill of life,
May both, we hope and pray,
Glide gently on, husband and wife
To their diamond wedding day

*Lynn News.Grove Notes.

Miss C. A. McAuliffe of Salem occupied her cottage on Mt. Zion avenue, June 13. Her niece, Miss Esther McAuliffe, with friends, were her guests. She has purchased the Waitt cottage and has completely transformed the interior and exterior, making it one of the pleasantest homes in Asbury Grove. Miss McAuliffe has suffered much from an operation on her throat, falling into the hands of an unskilled practitioner, and has the deepest sympathy of her many friends.

The L. B. Bates free library opened Monday June 21. A large number of most interesting books are given out daily. The library is open every day from 2 to 3:30 p. m. till Camp-meeting.

A "Red Letter Day."

Wednesday, July 28, was a "red letter day" for Asbury Grove, there were so many good times going on. The Essex County W. C. T. U. held its annual field day; the Avenue M. E. Church and Sunday School, Beverly, held its annual picnic; and Mr. Thomas Pitman of Marblehead entertained his Sunday School class at the cottage on Fisk avenue, the boys stopping over night with their genial host and teacher, who understands boys' natures thoroughly. Camp Maplewood, Sunnyside, was occupied by the Reading boys, under the personal direction of C. A. Simpson, General Secretary of the Reading Y. M. C. A., and Mrs. Ella Mansfield entertained Oakwood lodge, C. O. of A. O. L. of East Lynn at her cottage on Pleasant avenue. Mrs. J. Lewis entertained the W. R. corps of Revere at her home on the Ipswich road. A glorious band concert in the evening and a home-made candy sale completed a day that was filled to repletion with good things.

ANNUAL FIELD DAY OF ESSEX CO. W. C. T. U.

This was held at the Grove, morning and afternoon, and was one of the most interesting in years, the meeting being attended by representatives of several Unions in the county. In the forenoon the delegates held a social session, the tabernacle being thrown open for the day, the members gathering therein as well as in the circle for the interchange of ideas of work. A basket luncheon was served at noon.

At 2 p. m. a good-sized audience gathered in the Circle for the afternoon's exercises. The platform was prettily decorated with bouquets of ferns and wild and garden flowers. Mrs. Abbie S. Small of Danvers, the County President, had charge of the day's exercises. After several hymns were sung, Rev. Frank Parker of the Wenham Baptist church read the Scriptures and offered prayer. A trio, composed of Miss Eleanor Peterson, Miss Ocie Gould and Miss Abby W. Frear, sang, "Wanted, Loyal Hearts are Wanted," Miss May Frear being the accompanist. Mr. Parker gave a pleasant welcome, in the absence of Dr. Whitaker, Chaplain at the Grove. He spoke encouragingly of the work. Miss Sarah Speare sang sweetly "I Know He Cares." Mrs. Small then introduced Prof. John A. Nichols of Boston, who gave an excellent address on "No Saloons Under the Flag." He had a good voice, and spoke most interestingly. He said, "One hundred years ago last April the first temperance society was formed at Chattanooga Springs, New York. Governor Thomas Talbot said in his message before the Massachusetts Legislature, 1874, 'My heart and my conscience revolt against giving the sanction of the State to the sale of intoxicating liquors, and so long as I occupy the position I now occupy I will not attach my signature to any document legalizing its sale in this Commonwealth.' Some say, 'Prohibition does not prohibit.' I say Prohibition does prohibit, but does not always prevent. The people in Texas are thinking of voting against the manufacture of liquor. Oklahoma came into the Union as a prohibition State." He gave facts and figures that showed conclusively that we, as a nation, would be a stronger one if we did not use intoxicating liquors, in his own inimitable way, which called for applause several times. His prophecy for the future victory of right against wrong, as well as his encouraging words for onward movements, will long be remembered. "Onward, Christian Soldier," was sung, and after the collection and "Blest be the tie that binds," sung by the congregation, standing, Rev. Frank Parker pronounced the benediction. A large amount of literature was distributed during the afternoon by Miss S. G. Choate, and Prof. Nichols also gave away and sold many more.

Nine Unions were present — Wenham and Hamilton; Swampscott; No. 1, Lynn; Causey, Lynn; Barrett, Lynn; Danvers; Marblehead; Salem and Peabody.

ANNUAL PICNIC OF AVENUE M. E. CHURCH, BEVERLY.

More than a hundred children, with their parents or friends, left Beverly at 9 a. m. on Wednesday, to spend the day at Asbury Grove. Lunch was brought and eaten in the usual picnic fashion. Potato races, three-legged races, a hundred-yard dash and a seventy-five yard dash, under the leadership of Rev. A. F. Reimer, Messrs. Trask and Bernard, were indulged in, and appropriate prizes awarded. A base ball game was also umpired by Mr. Trask. Many of the older members remained for the evening band concert, but the children left in their special car at 6 p. m. for their homes. The Epworth League Cabinet of the church met with the pastor, Rev. A. F. Reimer, at the Beverly house, at 8 p. m. Mrs. A. F. Reimer was among those present.

CLASS PICNIC.

Mr. Thomas Pitman of Marblehead, that prince of entertainers, gave his Sunday School class of the Marblehead M. E. Church a most enjoyable outing in Asbury Grove, Wednesday, July 28. They were Wm. L. Woodfin, Emery Doane, Frederick Nickerson and Grafton Evitts. Grafton Evitts won the first prize in the 70-yard dash for boys under ten years of age, which was indulged in by the Beverly Sunday School, and in which he participated. Mr. Pitman kept the boys over night to enjoy the band concert, and they returned to Marblehead Thursday afternoon, having had a thoroughly good time.

ODD LADIES' PICNIC.

Mrs. Ella Mansfield very pleasantly entertained Oakwood Lodge of Odd Ladies of Lynn at the Parents cottage on Pleasant avenue. A fine dinner was served on the veranda at 12.30 p. m. The toasts were many and much enjoyed. Mrs. Paren's has been an Old Lady for the past thirty-eight years. Sixteen were present. The tables were decorated with red, white and blue bunting and sweet peas and other flowers. Among those present were: Mrs. Mary S. Newhall, past lady; Mrs. Rebecca Fifield, vice lady; Mrs. Elizabeth Stickney, junior warden; Mrs. Ella Mansfield, senior warden; Mrs. Louise Barry, recording secretary; Mrs. Eunice S. Hussey, past senior representative; Mesdames Annette Greenlaw, Eva D. Smith, Annie Farrington, Audrey Smith, Helen G. Healey.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS OF REVERE.

Twenty members of William B. Eaton Woman's Relief Corps 126, of Revere, were the guests of Mrs. J. Lewis, who is a member, at her home on the Ipswich road, Wednesday afternoon and evening. Tea and coffee, ice cream and cake were served by the hostess, and the day was very pleasantly spent and the ride from Revere was enjoyed by all. When leaving for their homes they were cordially invited to come again.

BAND CONCERT.

The second band concert of the season given in the circle Wednesday evening by Marsh's band of Lynn was attended by nearly one thousand people. Many of the cottages had special guests for the evening, and the church buildings were well filled. The following program was much enjoyed:

March, "Bay State Commandery," Barrell
Overture, "Poet and Peasant", Suppe
Mazura Russe, "La Czarina", Ganne
Piccolo solo, "The Wren Polka", Damare

William D. Powers.

a. "Heart Murmurs", Ralfe

HORACE B. GARDNER of this city died at the Soldiers' home, Chelsea, at a late hour Sunday night, July 18. He was born in Salem, the son of the late Simon Gardner, who for years conducted a bakery on the corner of Turner and Derby streets. He was 64 years of age, and he attended the public schools of Salem. March 18, 1862, when he was only 17 years of age, he enlisted in the First Massachusetts Heavy Artillery, as a private in Co. M. He proved a most heroic soldier and was severely wounded in the battle of Petersburg, Va., June 13, 1864. Rev. Temple Cutler of Hamilton was present in the hospital when young Gardner was brought in, and he published an account of it in the Salem Gazette, the following month. Mr. Cutler said:

"Mr. Gardner of Salem had received a severe wound in the face, fracturing the jaw and injuring the tongue so that he was speechless. He was taken to the hospital on a stretcher. Other patients gathered around so as to see the condition of the new-comer, whereupon Mr. Gardner made signs for a pencil and paper, which were brought to him, and on which he immediately wrote the words, 'Rally 'round the flag, boys! Read the hymn?'" His request was understood, and a copy of the song being produced, it was read and sung, all who could joining in the chorus. After every verse, when they came to the chorus, in which the words, 'Rally 'round the flag, boys,' were repeated, Gardner waved his bloody hand over his mutilated, speechless and bleeding head, and by the ardor of his looks and actions, evinced the fervor of his patriotism and his indomitable faith and courage. All present were deeply affected."

A letter from a member of the Christian commission dated City Point, Va., written to Mr. Gardner's father, and published in the Salem Register of July 4, 1864, contains these words: "Three days ago in visiting the wards I saw your son. He has a shocking wound in the mouth. The lower lip was thrown down and the mouth was partially opened. He was unable to swallow, but still is recovering. He is well cared for by a female nurse."

The effects of his wound were always felt by Mr. Gardner, his speech being affected by it. He was discharged from the service on account of it, Nov. 22, 1864. After returning home he worked in Salem, and was for several years employed in Greenlawn cemetery. He joined Post 34, G. A. R., June 14, 1870.

He leaves three brothers, Howard, Andrew and Dr. Frank Gardner, and three sisters, Mrs. Harriet Pope, Mrs. Charles E. Burns and Miss Frances Gardner.—Salem News.

Miss Frances Gardner summers on Fletcher avenue, Asbury Grove. She is deeply engaged in the W. C. T. U. work, but on the day of the Essex County convention was unable to be present on account of ill health. Her brother came from Togus, Maine, to stop awhile with her, but not improving, expressed a desire to go for a while to the Soldiers' Home in Chelsea, and passed away shortly after. Miss Gardner has the sympathy of all the W. C. T. U. in her constant ill health, and all desire that she may be permanently restored to health.

KENDALL G. PEARSON of Lynn died June 18, 1909, aged 72 years, 11 months. He was a veteran of the Civil War, serving in Company I, Eighth Massachusetts Volunteer Militia. He had been a cottage owner on Sunnyside for twenty-five years and was always interested in Asbury Grove. He leaves a wife, two sons, Messrs. C. H. and G. K. Pearson, and one daughter, Miss Eda M. Pearson, who are still interested in Asbury Grove. He was a Christian man, cheerful in sickness and ready and willing to go when he was called.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon, June 21, at 2 P. M. from his late residence, 738 Boston street, Lynn, and were conducted by Rev. James E. Coons of East Saugus. Miss Lizzie B. Miller sang most beautifully, "Jesus, Saviour, Pilot Me," "The Christian's Good-Night," and "Nearer My God to Thee."

Aged Resident Hurt.

A sad accident occurred here Thursday evening, Aug. 5, at the close of the lecture in the chapel. William Stetson, aged 84 years, who had been in attendance at the lecture, fell in the dark at the steps of the chapel and fractured his thigh. He was taken to his cottage, where a doctor was called. Mr. Stetson suffered greatly during the night, and his son-in-law, Rev. L. W. Adams and Mr. Joslin looked out for his comfort. It was thought best to remove him to the hospital in Salem, which was done. Mr. Stetson is one of the best known of the older cottagers at the Grove.

Good News.

Robert M. son of Alderman John H. Nelson, who graduated this year from the English High school, will commence his business career, September 1, with the American Woolen Company. He will enter the factory of the Washington mills at Lawrence, where he will remain for one year learning all the details of the manufacturing end of the business. He will go through every department, and afterward is to be identified with the selling department of the corporation in New York.—Exchange.

Gone Home

REV. RAYMOND S. WALKER's death was a shock to Asbury Grove Thursday morning, Aug. 5. Mr. Walker, though a sufferer from rheumatism and Bright's disease for the past ten years, took a great interest in Asbury Grove and the library in particular, saw its best growth while he was chairman of its committee. He had a kind word for everybody, and with his passing, a void remains that cannot be filled. None knew him but to love him. Mr. Walker had preached at Faulkner, Allston and Dedham, and was a Harvard graduate. His beneficence was known to but few; he had assisted at least four young college men to attain an education. As a musician, an organist, his talents were beyond the ordinary, and his knowledge of the value of books was that of a master in literature. The body was removed from the Grove cottage Saturday afternoon, Aug. 7. Flowers were sent there by friends. Services were held Sunday, Aug. 8, at the Dedham M. E. church.

The remains of Rev. Raymond S. Walker were viewed by scores of friends at his Essex avenue cottage Saturday morning, and all that was mortal of the beloved friend and teacher was borne away.

The Swedish Camp-meeting association passed resolutions of sympathy upon the death of Rev. Raymond S. Walker Thursday, Aug. 5, and these were delivered to Mrs. Walker by a committee consisting of District Superintendent F. E. Broman and Rev. C. J. Wigren. A special prayer was offered for the widow at this time.

On account of the death of the chairman of the library books committee, Rev. Raymond S. Walker, the entertainment to have been given at the tabernacle Saturday evening, Aug. 7, by the Laurel male quartet, has been indefinitely postponed.

MRS. MARY (KNIGHT), wife of Daniel F. Smith of Cambridge, died in that city Aug. 30, 1908. She was born in Glasgow, Scotland, and formerly lived in Newburyport. She married Daniel F. Smith of Portsmouth, N. H. She leaves three sons, John F. and Walter L. of Somerville, James A. of Cambridge, besides her husband, also several grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. She was an Odd Lady and the Onward Lodge of Somerville were present at her funeral and performed the last sad rites of the Order over her remains. Rev. Wilbur N. Mason had charge of the funeral services.

Mr. Smith is a member of Gen. Logan Post, No. 186 of Cambridgeport. Two years ago Mr. and Mrs. Smith occupied the Swett cottage on Lee Park. Mr. Smith is there this year for the season.

A Great Opportunity To Hear a Great Lecturer.

Illuminating lectures on The Bible and the Holy Land, by Madame Lydia M. Von Finkelstein Mountford, the Holy Land Messenger, from Jerusalem, Palestine.

Asbury Grove, Hamilton, Saturday, August 21, at 8 p. m. "The King of the Shepherds" or "The 23rd Psalm".

Sunday, August 22, at 7.30 p. m. "The Life of Christ". (Manhood and Ministry).

Monday, August 23, at 8 p. m. "Jerusalem, my Happy Home," "Its Street Calls and Picturesque Life."

A silver offering will be taken at the door to defray the expenses. Do not miss hearing these great lectures.

Rev. J. M. Buckley, D. D., says: (In Christian Advocate, May 25, 1905). "Madame Von Finkelstein Mountford is arranging for single lectures, or courses of lectures, on Bible Lands. She is the best lecturer upon Bible Lands, customs and peoples, religion and historical relations that we have heard. She is a native of Jerusalem, though of Russian-German descent. We were introduced to her by Bishop Vincent, soon after her arrival in the United States, and have heard her since, at intervals many times. We met her in Jerusalem in 1889, and were introduced by her to some of her early friends."

SPECIAL MEETINGS.

Meetings for boys each morning at 8.30 beginning Tuesday, August 31, under the leadership of Rev. Wilbur G. Chaffee, whose successful work is too well known to require representation.

Meetings for young women each morning at 9 o'clock and for little folks 1 p. m., in charge of Miss Mary A. Taggart, Superintendent of Deaconess Home. Miss Taggart has been pre-eminently successful at Des Plaines Camp Meeting and elsewhere in similar work.

THE SINGING.

Mr. Lewis E. Smith has charge of the singing the same as last year and will have the cordial support of every lover of sacred song. The Alexander Song Book will be used. The singers from the churches are invited to help. Edward Howe will be organist.

Obituary.

SAMUEL A. TUTTLE of Hyde Park, died Oct. 25, 1908, aged 71 years. He was born in Eppingham, N. H., Oct. 11, 1837. He was taken ill with the pneumonia and never recovered. He was the noted manufacturer of Tuttle's Elixir. Besides his wife, he leaves three sons and one daughter.

MRS. SARAH E. NEWCOMB, widow of John B. Newcomb of Swampscott, died in Beverly

July 28. She was taken very ill at the Swampscott building in the Grove and carried to Beverly, where she passed away at the age of 91 years. Funeral services were held at the residence of her grandson, Harry B. Newcomb, 60 King street, Swampscott, Friday, July 30, at 2 P. M.

Some of the preachers at the Campmeeting will be Rev. Mr. Atkins of East Boston, who will preach on Saturday at 2 p. m., and Bishop Mallelien, who is expected to preach on Thursday at 2 p. m. Rev. Geo. Whitaker, it is said, will preach the opening sermon.

Religious Services.

Rev. Mr. Nickerson conducted services in May. Rev. George Whitaker was appointed chaplain for the months of June and July. At his first service June 6, there were forty present; at the 2.30 p. m. preaching service the text was Matt. xxiv: 32; a prayer service was held at 7 p. m. The collection for the day amounted to $2.14.

June 13 the Sunday school began its summer work; seventeen were present; no collection. At the 2.30 p. m. preaching service, sixty were present, the text was Col. 1: 19; and forty at the social service at 7 p. m. The collection was $2.95.

June 20 the Sunday School had thirty-four present; collection sixty-eight cents. At the 2.30 p. m. service there were eighty-two present, the text was from Matt. iii: 11; and sixty at the 7 o'clock service; the collection was $3.70.

June 27—The Sunday school had an attendance of 52, and a collection of $1.06. In the afternoon the attendance was 179, and the evening audience numbered 113. The afternoon and evening collections amounted to $5.40. Dr. Whitaker spoke from the Stand in the afternoon from Psa. cxxvi: 6. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bearing his sheaves with him. Mr. Eaton sang a solo very acceptably.

July 4 services were published in the July Mentor.

July 11—The Sunday School was held in Chapel. Superintendent Jackson reported 99 present and the collection $1.31.

The weather was fine and 300 people assembled at the Auditorium for the usual Sunday afternoon worship. Dr. Whitaker chose for his text Ecc. ix: 10. "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might, for there is no work nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom in the grave whither thou goest." The supremacy of duty, the manner of its performance and the reason for so doing constituted the theme of this most profitable discourse. "Duty," he said, "was the supreme obligation. It was within 'the scope of all men.'" He defined duty as "what man was able to do of what God desired to have done." The Bible gives us one and the Holy Spirit the other, so that all that is duty is possible to all men. This should be done under the conviction of its necessity, with corresponding emotions and activity. The reasons were drawn from what the speaker called the law of action and the law of time. Dr. Grow of Lynn sang very impressive solos at both the afternoon and evening services.

At the evening service 154 were present in chapel, and Rev. Dr. Whitaker led.

July 18—Sunday School at 10.30 a. m. in chapel with an attendance of 93 and a collection of $1.44, Mr. Jackson superintendent. Dr. Whitaker at the 2.30 p. m. service took for his theme "Jacob wrestling for his Blessing." He showed the early character of Jacob and the marvellous change wrought in him through the blessing he received in his victorious struggle. His application to present conditions was clear and strong. The congregation numbered fully 300.

July 25.—The Sunday School in the chapel at 10.30 had 83 present, and the collection was 92 cents. Mr. James Jackson, superintendent.

The day was fine and the audience was large. Young Mr. Jackson sang with excellent effect, "He careth for you." The Chaplain chose for his text John iii: 16. "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have everlasting life. He regarded the text as a climatic expression of God's love by which man's love should be awakened and devoted to God. He considered that in every way of communication by creation, providence, law and redemption, God has exhibited his love to the full measure of the medium to express it, so that the gift of his Son was the climax of its expression, and offered the fullest resources and motives and assistance to love and serve Him in return. Each of these departments were illustrated and explained so as to awaken fullest faith and deepest interest in the Divine plan. He also pointed out faith as the condition on which grace should fulfil its work and delineated briefly the results of such faith. Man might not perish, but have eternal life.

In the evening there were 175 present and Dr. Whitaker spoke on "Jeremiah's Lament over the Sins of the People."

Aug. 1—The Sunday School at 10.30 a. m. had 96 present and $1.41 collection, Mr. Jackson, superintendent. At 2.30 p. m. Chaplain Whitaker found that the audience in the Grove was large and attentive. He chose for his theme Heb. vii: 25. "Wherefore he is able to save to the uttermost them that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them." He said the significance of his text gathered around the words "he is able." The character of Christ as the divine One and the exhibitions of his power as seen in nature, in its varieties and motions were cited as indications of power. What power humanity needed "power to save" demanded an offering for sin and a pure officer. Christ only perfectly represented these. His intercession gives significance to life and the promise of the spirit to mightily save. Miss Myrtle Lynch of Lynn was the soloist at the evening service.

Aug. 8—The Sunday School had an attendance of 75 with a collection of $1.43. Superintendent Jackson was in charge. The Chaplain spoke from Acts xxvi: 28. "Almost thou persuaded me to be a christian," In the evening he spoke on John xiv. and later was presented with a sum of money by Rev. Mr. Gerrish of Lynn, in token of the appreciation of his services by the people in the Grove. Roy Whitehouse gave a cornet solo in afternoon.

A Most Enjoyable Outing.

Camp Maplewood, Sunnyside, was occupied by the Reading Y. M. C. A. boys from July 17 to 31. During the camping period at Asbury Grove the Reading boys enjoyed every minute of their stay. The camp was under the personal direction of Mr. C. A. Sampson, General Secretary of the Reading Y. M. C. A. and was not conducted for financial profit—but for providing a short vacation for the boys of Reading.

Camping is an experience which every live full-blooded, growing boy longs for. It makes him healthy and happy and gives him the reserve force necessary to stand the strain of school life.

Asbury Grove is an ideal place for any boy to spend a vacation. The special points of interest in the boys' life here are the beautiful grove of pines, the winding paths to Idlewood Lake, the lake with its beautiful scenery and its possibilities for water sports, the baseball and athletic field and tennis courts; also the social life which means so much to a boy, with the entertaining features of the grove.

The good will of the people, which was manifested, filled the boys' lives with new ideals and religious principles.

The boys in camp were:—Raymond McKay, Nelson Weston, Earl Florence, Herbert Patrick, Donald Hunnewel, Chester Harts-horn, Wendell Miller, Milton Symonds, Carl Goodridge, Willard Downing, Henry Parker, Harold Stembridge, Foster Nowell, George Bolton, Clarence McKay, William Florence, Alfred Townsend, Carl Wishman, John Colvin, Donald Stevens, Herbert Esterberg.

Good-night Chorus

The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Luke's church, Lynn, presented by far the finest entertainment in the Tabernacle, Saturday evening, July 31, that has been given here this season. The entertainment was given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Grove. The furnishing and arrangement of the platform as a drawing room, with stage fittings, was a leading feature. This was the work of Mrs. C. B. Gillespie, assisted by Mrs. Annie Williams, Mrs. Inez Chandler and Mr. Gillespie. The program presented was as follows: Orchestra of four pieces; dialogue, "The Greatest Plague in Life," the characters being Mildred Hayes, Mary Bustle; Mrs. John Stone, Grandmother Bustle; Lizzie Sinclair, Mrs. Bustle; Sadie Benner, Kittie Clover; Mrs. Jessie McLellan, Miss Monshine; Mrs. C. Seney, Biddy O'Rafferty; Mrs. E. C. Gove, Mrs. McShane; contralto solos, Miss Mertie Lynch; Grecian posings, Mrs. Rawding; pantomime of Holy City by Mrs. Rawding, Miss Lynch, soloist; "Vision of Fair Women," the description being read by Mrs. Jessie McLellan and Sadie Benner; the parts were taken thus: Priscilla, Marion Fraser; Joan of Arc, Mrs. Adelaide Somes; Goddess of Liberty, Mrs. E. P. Dow; Maud Muller, Mrs. Cassie Seney; Princess, Myrtle Lynch; Irish washerwoman, Mrs. Carrie Gove; Hesperus, Miss Mildred Hayes; Quakeress, Florence Pearson; Cinderella, Phyllis Coane; readings, Mrs. John Stone; cornet solos, Don Mayburry; drama, "Two Lunatics", Mrs. Maria Butler and A. S. Burnham.

The entertainment was arranged by Mrs. Jessie McLellan of Glenmere. The ushers were Misses Marian and Elizabeth Rowe, Gladys Williams, S. Josephine Gillespie.—Lynn Item.

Baseball.

The first game of the season on the renovated grounds was witnessed by about 300 people, the new grandstand being filled with rooters. The contest was between the Outlaws of Salem and the Asbury Groves, the result being as follows:

Too Bad.

"Misfortunes never come singly" they say, and it was proved so in the case of Charles T. Rich of Malden, who has met with a heavy loss in two suit cases and fancy paints, paint brushes, etc., to about $100 value. Thomas Myrtle of Worcester was given work and while Mr. Rich was away, repaid his employer by running away with his goods.

Mr. Rich is well known in the Grove. His mother died last fall.

In Memoriam.

We would pay tribute to those who have joined the larger assembly beyond.

Each year as we come together, we miss friends who have been wont to greet us year by year.

During the past year Mr. and Mrs. Charles Low of East Boston, parents of Mrs. J. F. Hodge, have been called home, separated from one another just four months to the day.

The last place they visited was Asbury Grove four years ago. Mr. Low was taken ill while here, and up to March 7, 1909 was confined to his bed, a great sufferer, but cheerful, and patient and thoughtful and careful of those who attended him.

Mrs. Low was her husband's constant attendant and companion. Her one desire was to be able to care for him as long as he lived, but the Master called her first. After an illness of two weeks, she passed away Nov. 7, 1908, a woman of wonderful vitality and will power, ever patient, sympathetic, loving and kind. She loved Asbury Grove and was a constant attendant at the camp meetings for many years.

Together they lived for fifty-eight years.

Personals.

At No. 10 Skinner, Aug. 7, were Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Gabriel of Dorchester, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Alfred H. Stokes, Master Irving Stokes and Miss Martha E. Stokes of Boston.

At No. 12 Skinner for a month are Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cameron, daughter Eva and son Edward of Somerville. They came Aug. 7.

At 17 Hedding Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Millett, Mrs. A. T. Aull and daughter Miss Bertha Aull of Salem had a pleasant outing, coming July 17.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Beckman have been occupying their Prospect avenue cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Letteny of 24 Webster st., Atlanta, came July 15 to their Haven avenue cottage.

Compliments of

Lynn Friends

The editor solicits correspondence for this column for each issue, with the writer's real name and address (not for publication). By special permission we publish a private letter to Aunt Jerusha from an old resident at the Grove.

The Grovite Speaketh.

ASBURY GROVE, Aug. 14, 1909.

Dear Aunt Jerusha:—

We are enjoying these August days at the Grove, and yet it is sometimes very hard to compose ourselves in peace, and possess our souls in patience, when we see many things neglected or overlooked that we think might be different. We know that it is human to err, and that it takes no ability to find fault or complain, so I am going to do a little criticising in this letter. I think it is time something was done toward the erection of our Grove Library. Nearly 3000 books were distributed last year from present quarters and every one collected, and they have given out as high as 125 in a single day this season. Surely after all the hard work of Auntie F., who has worked so long and faithfully and given so generously, many think it is time our Association should make a move in giving us a suitable Library building, containing a good reading room, as a special fund is on deposit for this purpose. Commencement of a building will awake a new interest and balance of funds necessary, as well as many volumes promised for the Library, will be forthcoming.

Auntie, we see no signs of having our bakery open this season. It seems to us that the contract of our Association in leasing must be at fault, as it is included in lease to our general store keeper. Baked beans and cooked meats and fish are on sale at rear of restaurant. My experience cannot give much credit to the service there, as in a great hurry I called for some baked beans and was allowed to wait until the flies were brushed from the room; might give you many other instances of prompt service.

Auntie, there are still some very enterprising people in the world. I heard of a gentleman recently who bought a small church house, and allows the church to hold the title for the little saving in ground rent.

Dear Aunt Jerusha, you will think my complaints are numerous, but I know you are as much interested in good service and our comfort at the Grove as we are ourselves. I do hope we will have our bakery open and not have to subsist on outside baker's goods. I just long for those fresh corn cakes and muffins, etc., served at our bakery last season.

We ladies will have to form ourselves in a committee as one, and work for the benefit of the Grove. We must go before the Association and make our complaints to them. Our entertainments and band concerts at the tabernacle are fine. Our chaplain, Dr. Whitaker was enjoyed by all, better preaching is rarely heard. Hoping everything will go smoothly the coming month, I remain,

Your Loving Niece,

THE GROVITE.

A Sad Drowning Accident.

We glean the following sad news from a letter dated—

CORK, IRELAND, June 23, 1909.

From this place comes the sad news that Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Loughhead, formerly of 28 High street, Charlestown, were drowned by the swamping of a boat on Lake Killarny, where they encountered a gale, in which the boat capsized and only two boatmen were saved by the searchers who were sent out.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Loughhead occupied their cottage on Highland avenue, Asbury Grove, April 19. A little later they sailed for Europe. They had lived in Charlestown thirty years.

They are survived by a son, Charles Loughhead, Harvard, 1903, who has been in a serious condition in a private hospital in Somerville; also a daughter, Miss Sybil Loughhead, 17 years old, who was to graduate June 24 from the Boston Girls' Latin school. She is at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank E. Bates on Highland avenue, Somerville, in whose care she was left by her parents when they went abroad. Mr. and Mrs. Loughhead are natives of New Brunswick, and were married twenty-nine ago.

Rev. A. Morrill Osgood writes: "Charlestown Methodism is sorely bereaved in the sudden death, by drowning, of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Loughhead, in Ireland, on Wednesday, June 23. They were on their way home from a three months' tour abroad. Mrs. Loughhead was the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Butler, so many years prominently identified with Monument Square Methodist Episcopal Church. At their death Mr. and Mrs. Loughhead inherited their large estate, and in April, 1899, when the churches of Charlestown were united, they transferred their membership to Trinity Church. Their attendance upon the Sunday morning service was regular, and their contributions were large. For the last ten years Mr. Loughhead has served as trustee, and he was held in the highest esteem. Mr. Loughhead leaves a brother in California. The son, who received the degree of Ph. D. from Harvard last year, has been serving with exceptional efficiency as instructor the present year at Wilbraham Academy. He is in a hospital in Somerville critically ill. A daughter Sybil, also will mourn the loss of both father and mother. Mr. and Mrs. Loughhead will be greatly missed in the community for their quiet, sympathetic, upright lives, and earnest prayers are being offered for the restoration of the son to complete health, and for divine grace in sustaining both son and daughter in their great trial."—Zion's Herald.

Good Times.

One of the most attractive home made candy sales that have taken place at the Grove this season was held Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 3, under the auspices of the Asbury Gleaners, and was given by a number of children who have interested themselves in the work. A very pretty table was set on the lawn in front of Mrs. A. M. Joslin's cottage, Essex avenue, and the bountiful supply of sweets was soon sold. Mrs. A. M. Joslin and Mrs. George B. Pratt chaperoned the children following, who had charge of the candy table: Misses Ethel Joslin, Miriam Adams, Dorothy Moon, Mildred Pratt, Dorothy Daly.

The Season's Entertainment.

The entertainment committee for the season were George C. Melville, Lynn, chairman; C. B. Gillespie, Hamilton, secretary; Rev. L. W. Adams, Lynn, treasurer; Ralph Osborne, Beverly, and H. W. Eaton, Salem. The first meeting was held Thursday June 17, at Mr. Melville's cottage, Essex avenue, and a grand program for the season's entertainment planned, as follows: Saturday evening, June 26, an illustrated address by an eminent lecturer, who was introduced by Mr. Adams. Saturday evening, July 3, a big bonfire of railroad tiles in the ball field. Sunday, July 4, a patriotic program in charge of Chaplain George Whitaker. Monday evening, July 5, fireworks on the ballfield. Saturday evening July 17, a band concert in the circle; other band concerts, July 28, Aug. 14, Aug. 25. Aug. 28, grand illumination of all the cottages and the circle. July 8, an illustrated evening was proposed. Every Thursday evening a "sing" led by Mr. Melville, has taken place in the chapel.

Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gray and Mrs. Andrew Gray of Peabody, Mr. and Mrs. Norman L. Owen and Mrs. C. B. Henson of North Beverly occupied 16 Fisk avenue, July 23 for several days' outing.

Mrs. H. H. Crimp of Everett is occupying part of the Parents' cottage for August.

Mr. and Mrs. George Morse of Danvers occupied 2 Pleasant ave.

No. 2 Merrill avenue was occupied from Aug. 3 to Aug. 10 by Mrs. Albert Edlund, Mrs. Emma Birath and daughter, Miss Signe Birath of Brockton.

A bargeload of young people, with John Mann as driver, had one of the most enjoyable outings of the season from the Grove, Tuesday evening, Aug. 3.

At 3 Skinner Mr. G. Eveleth of Swampscott is having a pleasant outing of two weeks.

Annual September Blanket Sale.

Almy, Bigelow & Washburn's—the place to buy blankets! Every year the Big Store of Essex County features a September blanket sale which for size, variety and special value giving, stands unequaled. This year sees no change—unless it be said that the values are better than ever. Every want in the blanket line has been provided for; there are blankets of every description, size and quality and all are underpriced for this gigantic sale.

Of especial interest is an offering of five special blanket lots secured at a great bargain by our buyer while in New York. It is the portion of an auction-house's purchase secured from a bankrupt blanket mill. A. B. & W. were allowed to share in the purchase, which makes it possible for them to offer September shoppers some extraordinary blanket bargains. If you need blankets, see the Big Store's offerings.

Translated.

We would be glad if it were in our power to invite every "stammering tongue" without money and without price; but as we cannot, we will do the next best thing by terms that all can pay.

WHAT WOULD THE MASTER DO?

Our invitation is to all,

Our terms are such all can pay;

A price to suit both rich and poor,

That none need stay away.

If rich, be generous with your wealth,

If poor, fear not, you're welcome too.

This rule shall be our guide and yours,

If here, "What would the Master do?"

Baptism.

On Labor Day, Sept. 6, at 3 o'clock, Rev. George Whitaker, D. D., baptized Eleanor Carr, the little daughter of Mr. J. Lewis and Mrs. Frances D. Carr of Chelsea, at their cottage, 16 Fletcher avenue, Asbury Grove. Those present were her grandmother, Mrs. Carr, her great aunt, Mrs. Chandler, Mr. Whitehouse and his sisters, the Misses Whitehouse. The bowl used was over one hundred years old and was the only relic saved from the Chelsea fire. The baptism was to have been performed by Dr. Bates on Sunday, Aug. 29, he having baptized Mr. Lewis Carr, her father, who was named after him.

Lectures of Madame Mountford.

Asbury Grove was especially favored this season in having the great privilege of listening to Madame Mountford of Jerusalem, who delivered three illuminating lectures on the Bible and the Holy Land, in the tabernacle. Aug. 21 she lectured on "The King of the Shepherds," or the 23d Psalm; Aug. 22, "The Life of Christ"; Aug. 23, "Jerusalem, My Happy Home." Her lectures are very realistic and take one directly to the place described. It was a great treat to the Asbury Grove cottagers and visitors.

Translation of Rev. L. B. Bates, President of Asbury Grove Association.

Saturday morning, Aug. 28, while every one was busy with the decorations for the pleasant time anticipated Saturday evening, the sad news was received by telephone of the sudden death of Dr. L. B. Bates, our beloved president.

He started Friday morning, Aug. 27, from his summer home at Thurston's Point, Gloucester, and intended to take the 1 p. m. train for Oak Bluffs, to be present to receive Governor Draper. Shortly after 9 a. m., on his way to his home, he met an old business friend and exchanged friendly greetings. About 2 p. m. Saturday afternoon, Aug. 28, his daughter, Mrs. Emma M. Harvey, his constant companion and helper in Christian work, entered, and seeing him sitting in a chair, spoke to him, but receiving no answer, hurried forward and learned that his spirit had fled. It is evident that he died early Friday forenoon, and not on Saturday afternoon.

Rev. L. B. Bates was born in North Easton, Nov. 26, 1829. He was the son of Rev. Lewis and Elizabeth Webster Bates. His first ancestor was Clement Bates, who came here in 1665, and was the first white man to land on the shore of Hingham. His father was one of the founders of Methodism in New England, and was a descendant of the martyr, John Rogers, who was burned at the stake. He was licensed as an exhorter at 17; at 19 he entered the local Methodist ministry, and joined the Providence, now New England Southern Conference; at the age of 21 was chaplain of the Bristol county prison, and for five years was chaplain of the 3d Massachusetts regiment. In 1872 he was transferred to the New England Conference. His last important work was at the Bethel in East Boston, where he had been a quarter of a century.

Besides his wife, he leaves one son, Hon. John L. Bates, and three daughters, Mrs. Emma May Harvey, Mrs. George H. Carter, and Mrs. Wm. Gilchrist, and several grandchildren.

The funeral services were held on Tuesday, Aug. 31, at the Bethel church in East Boston. Rev. A. P. Sharp, superintendent of Lynn district, was in charge. Revs. Charles Parkhurst, D. D., and C. E. Davis, D. D., read the Scripture selections in the Methodist ritual. Miss Margaret Conrad sang two of his favorite pieces, "Will there be any stars in my crown," and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." At the conclusion of the services, tributes to the life of Dr. Bates were delivered by Bishop Hamilton, Rev. Herbert A. Manchester, pastor of First Presbyterian church of East Boston, Bishop Willard F. Mallalieu, and Rev. F. E. Clark, D. D., of the Christian Endeavor Society. Rev. C. F. Rice, D. D., led in prayer at the close of the eulogies.

The pallbearers, members of the official board of the Bethel church, were James Jackson, A. S. Cassidy, William Jensen, Dr. Chas. Christernin, Stanley McMullen, and Louis Hollingsworth. The remains were interred in the family lot at Woodland cemetery. The hearse was headed by the members of the official board, who marched to Chelsea bridge, the bells tolling as the cortege passed along Meridian street.

The beautiful lines of Alfred Tennyson are the best suited to this sudden ending of his useful, Christian life.

CROSSING THE BAR.

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me,
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving, seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.

For though from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

Cottagers' Illumination.

Saturday evening, Aug. 28, was the appointed time for a general illumination. Right in the midst of the preparation for the event Saturday, news was received of the death of our beloved president, Dr. L. B. Bates of East Boston. This took the heart out of the affair and what promised to be a very delightful time was not enjoyed, as the aching hearts could think of nothing but this great loss. The illumination was not as general as it would have been, but many of the occupants of the cottages had their cottages illuminated and prettily decorated.

The Bethel had a large picture of Dr. Bates, decorated with greenery, placed in front of their building on the platform; the flag was at half mast. Jesse Lee Hall presented a beautiful sight with its array of lanterns. Salem, Wakefield, Swampscott, Beverly, Saratoga St., E. B., and Peabody buildings presented a pretty sight. Salem building had just flung the stars and stripes to the breeze. The Mentor office was decorated with flags and greenery and wild flowers. Small vials filled with wild flowers were strung across the front of the building, and a black ribbon tied in a bowknot underneath the flags as a mark of respect to our departed President, Dr. Bates.

Of the cottages, it may be said that they presented a pleasing spectacle. Mrs. S. O. Farrell conceived the idea of beacon lights placed on top of the flag staffs. Foreman Mann and Mr. Nickerson very kindly assisted her in carrying out the idea. The flags were placed at half mast.

It would be hard to say which single cottage looked the best. The Upham cottage on Pleasant avenue, occupied by Arthur Harraden and friends, members of the Oxford Club of Danvers, was resplendent with its rows of candles and lanterns. Mr. Eaton's display was very unique. Japanese umbrellas and lanterns made the cottage look beautiful. John S. Cormack and Fred A. Babb of Lynn had their cottages uniquely decorated and brilliantly lighted. The Dodge cottage, corner of Fisk avenue, occupied by the Holdens of Salem and Hathaways of Beverly, was prettily decorated. The Edgewood cottage, Kingsley avenue, was prettily lighted. The Seelye cottage, also the cottage occupied by Mr. Dillaway presented a pretty sight. Many other cottages deserve honorable mention, but space forbids. Perhaps the Johnson cottage had the best display of lanterns of any in the Grove. All hearts were heavy with sorrow for our great loss.

Bova's orchestra from South Boston gave an especially fine concert from 8 to 10 p. m. Samuel Blackburn, the boy violinist, played several solos in a masterly way. When the orchestra was told of the death of Dr. Bates, they touchingly played "Wayside Chapel," and "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

Personals.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Ackerman of Roxbury have passed a short season at their cottage on Western avenue. Left Aug. 21 for an extended vacation in central New York. Mrs. Ackerman passed Aug. 18 with Mrs. Wm. E. White of Newburyport and Mrs. Jane Perkins, who have passed many seasons at People's church building, Asbury Grove. R. W. Ackerman recently purchased another lot from Samuel G. Goodhue.

Mr. Walter Sprague and family of Cliftondale occupied the Ackerman cottage, Western avenue, from Aug. 21 for the remainder of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Graves of Peabody occupied 26 Fletcher avenue from Aug. 12 to Aug. 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank I. Packard of Chicago have been guests of Miss Margaret Gale at 18 Highland avenue. Mrs. Packard was formerly Miss Jennie Gale of Chelsea.

At 29 Hamline avenue were Mrs. M. A. Harris and Mrs. A. L. Harris of Swampscott, and Mrs. G. E. Smith and two sons of Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mears of Charlestown came July 20 for the season to 30 Thompson avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic W. Slade have rented the Muir cottage on Highland park till October 1. Lieut. and Mrs. Frank W. Tucker of Chelsea spent the week-end of camp meeting with their daughter, Mrs. Slade.

The annual meeting of the cottagers was held at Jesse Lee Hall, Labor Day morning, with nearly 100 in attendance. The treasurer's report which was accepted, shows total collections for entertainments of $589.44 which, after all bills have been paid, leaves a balance of $19.66 to be turned over to next year's committee. The committee of this year, on motion of Mr. John Nelson, received a vote of thanks for its work during the season. It was also voted to have the report of the secretary sent to the newspapers for publication.

A committee, consisting of Fred A. Norton, James Jackson and John R. Mann, was appointed to consider the purchase of a chemical fire engine.

There was also a committee appointed of cottage owners to look out for the interests of the cottagers and confer with the Corporation. This committee consists of John M. Wilson of Salem, James Jackson of E. Boston, John A. Johnson of Ipswich, John M. Nelson of Lynn, and C. B. Gillespie of Boston. A new entertainment committee, consisting of Fred A. Norton, chairman; Charles Dillaway, secretary; H. W. Eaton, treasurer; and Ralph Osborne, was elected and is now organized. The secretary's report for the entertainment committee for 1909 is herewith given in full:

ENTERTAINMENT PROCEEDINGS, ASBURY GROVE
COTTAGERS' ASSOCIATION. SEASON 1909.

By the records, as well as by actual accomplishments, it is shown that the season has been a fairly busy one for the committee. Several meetings have been held, most of them in the dark, and therefore somewhat informal, so I shall ask you to accept this report in sketch or reminiscent form.

For various reasons the make up of your committee has been somewhat changed from that voted at the annual meeting of the cottagers a year ago. Members then elected comprised Messrs. Adams, Gove, Atwood and Gillespie. The first and last named, in accordance with the vote of the Association when they met for the first time this year (June 17), elected George C. Melville for the fifth member. He was then chosen chairman; Rev. L. W. Adams, treasurer; and C. B. Gillespie, secretary. It being found that Mr. Gove was not to spend the summer here, on account of his cottage being burned, and that Mr. Atwood was unable, on account of his health, to serve, the committee invited Mr. Edward W. Nichols of Hamilton Park and Ralph Osborne to fill the vacancies. Mr. Nichols, however, after the first meeting, decided the committee had set too fast a pace for him to try to keep up with, and sent in his resignation, accompanied by a check for $2. This was accepted with thanks—that is to say, the check, and Mr. H. W. Eaton was chosen by the committee to fill the vacancy. From that time to the present, when the committee now gives account of itself, the members have been composed of the following, all of whom have been more or less in evidence, and endeavored to do their duty as they saw it, so far as they could without too much injury to themselves and their business, Geo. C. Melville, chairman; Rev. L. W. Adams, treasurer; C. B. Gillespie, secretary; Ralph Osborne, and H. W. Eaton.

At its first meeting it was voted to arrange, as far as possible, a definite program for the entire season, and trust to the support of the cottagers. In this it will be shown by the treasurer's report that they did not reckon without their host.

While much active work was done by the committee previously, the first event carried out was the large bonfire of the evening of July 3. This was arranged by Mr. Osborne, who is employed on the B. & M. R. R., and from whom he was successful, as in previous years, in getting a large number of old railroad sleepers. Mr. P. L. Barrett and A. E. Peatfield also contributed boxes and barrels and kerosene, and Mr. Mann did the carting. Some unknown boys furnished the matches, and very inconsiderately set off the fire about fifteen minutes before schedule time, in the absence of the members of the committee, who were gone from the scene of the intended conflagration to get more kerosene which they planned was needed to add more volume to the blaze.

On July 4 (Sunday), there were patriotic services in the chapel in the morning for the Sunday School, and other services in the circle in the afternoon presided over by Rev. Geo. Whitaker. The circle was appropriately decorated with American flags loaned by Mr. Harry Raymond, but the services were interrupted, much to the regret of all, by a heavy shower.

The celebration of the Fourth of July was continued on Monday in a manner which seemed to please the cottagers to a most encouraging extent. The first event of the day was the Antique and Horrible parade, which was to have started at 9 o'clock, but really began to move at about 9.45, owing to the delay in the arrival of one of the features. The parade was the first of its kind ever given in the Grove, and consisted of floats of historical and comic arrangement, and a large number of individual get-ups, amusing and harmless in character. The Fusileer drum corps of Hamilton volunteered their services free and furnished the music. Jesse Mann, as "Uncle Sam," was chief marshal, and was accompanied by two distinguished ladies, "Carry Nation" (Mr. Chase), and a "Salem Witch" (Mr. Eaton), all in full costume. The parade, though somewhat short, was of excellent quality, and won much praise. Another year more confidence may probably be shown, a larger and more successful affair resulting.

There were several placards carried in the parade announcing the dates of band concerts. The rear was brought up by three members of the committee, and their banner, "Support your Committee," was adopted as the slogan of the year. The route extended through as many avenues of the Grove and Park as was practical and safe, and after being reviewed by the committee at the cottage of Mr. Melville, continued to the starting point on Morris avenue, where it disbanded.

The entire expense of the parade to the committee was less than $3, those taking part providing their own costumes and carriages and vehicles, excepting those procured by the committee that were kindly loaned by Mr. Mann, Mr. C. E. Whipple, Arthur C. Cummings, Frank R. Schaller, and Mr. Dodge.

There was a ball game in the afternoon that was well attended, and fireworks in the evening, consisting of the same display as the year previous, bought at the same place and at the same price as paid before.

At the first full meeting of the committee it was voted to engage bands like the Salem Cadet for three band concerts, and one orchestra for another concert, to be held two on Wednesday and two on Saturday nights. The following bands were engaged: Stiles' 8th Regt. Band, Lynn, 22 pieces; Marsh's Band of Lynn, 22 pieces, and Salem Cadet Band, 22 pieces, all at the same cost, $69 each. Pulsifer's Orchestra was also engaged, and, like the Bands, gave a good concert, but at much less cost—$25.59. The last concert of the season, illumination night, was by Bova's Orchestra of Boston. Mr. Bova kindly volunteered his orchestra, provided the committee would secure transportation by special car from Boston to and from the Grove, which was happily arranged by the committee, who also insisted on providing the orchestra with a supper at the grove hotel restaurant.

It was voted by the committee to hold either social sings under Director Melville and leader James Jackson, or illustrated lectures or concerts every Thursday evening during the season. Several evenings during the summer accordingly were given over to that purpose, the sings proved popular, no collection being taken, but the three illustrated lectures arranged by Treasurer Adams were also popular as well as entertaining and instructive and somewhat profitable, an admission of ten cents being charged, the attendance at all being good.

There was a fourth lecture also arranged by Mr. Adams that was given by Rev. Dr. Blake, but the proceeds and the management were given over to the Gleaners.

BASE BALL.

At the request of the ball players it was voted to finance the base ball team this year. The result has been that a grand stand and back stop have been erected, the ball field somewhat levelled and improved and new suits bought for the players to be owned by the cottagers and not taken from the grounds. This has been made possible from the receipts of the game and the liberality of the Boston & Northern St. Ry., in furnishing this year for the first time free passes for the visiting players. In fact it might be said that the B. & N. Ry. have really paid for building the grand stand if saving on special cars furnished free for bands and orchestras and tickets for all players be reckoned as cash received by the committee, which it might properly be so considered.

PIANO.

At the same meeting when it was voted to purchase new ball uniforms it was also voted to buy a piano. It was voted that this piano should not become the property of the Association but should be owned by the cottagers, and cared for by further entertainment committees, but should be used by any society without charge in the Grove provided it should be kept in the chapel, or if moved temporarily from the chapel should be moved back by the parties borrowing it the same night.

MONEY RAISING.

The method of raising money was strictly followed through the season. Members of the committee only solicited subscriptions and began their work in this direction July 18, continuing every evening until recently. The wisdom of confining this work strictly to members of the committee is also shown in the treasurer's report.

The committee in this report desire to express their thanks to all who have in any way contributed to the funds entrusted to their raising and spending.

It has also been voted to especially extend its thanks to the Boston & Northern Street Ry. through its division supt. R. B. Chalmers at the Salem office; to the Boston & Maine R. R. for sleepers; to John R. Mann for hauling, carting and loaning horses and teams and various other helpful and money saving kindnesses; to Jesse S. Mann for reduction in price of 1400 feet of lumber and some free labor in building the grand stand; to Fred A. Norton for work in building back stop and to the young men of the Grove who assisted him in this as well as levelling the ball field and filling in new base lines. To the Asbury Grove Camp Meeting Association for 200 feet of lumber used in building the back stop at the ball field; to Rev. L. W. Adams for furnishing and operating free his stereopticon at four illustrated lectures; to Mr. Charles A. Bova, proprietor of the Head House at Boston City Point for sending his orchestra here for a very enjoyable evening's concert; to Messrs. Hale, Stokes, Penniman and Dr. Blake for entertaining and instructive lectures for which none made any charge for services; to Arthur C. Cummings, C. E. Whipple, Frank R. Schaller, and Mr. Dodge for teams, floats, barges and hayracks and Mr. P. L. Barrett for being the largest individual contributor in dollars and cents and in addition to entertaining ball players at meals without charge; to Hon. Augustus P. Gardner, congressman of Hamilton, for sending a check for $10 toward the band concerts without being able to enjoy any of the music or winning any new votes.

The committee has worked reasonably hard and has been supported. May not our successors be as well backed up by the cottagers of good old Asbury Grove the next year.

Respectfully submitted,

C. B. GILLESPIE, Sec'y.

Asbury Grove, Sept. 6, 1909.

With Full Power.

The committee of five cottage owners, appointed at the annual cottagers' meeting to confer with the corporation, met and organized Sept. 11. The committee has full power to represent the cottagers and settle differences with the corporation.

The committee is composed of the following: James Jackson, chairman; C. B. Gillespie, secretary; John H. Johnson, J. M. Wilson and J. H. Nelson.

Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Emerson, daughters Jessie and Della and granddaughter Dorothy Holden, also Mrs. Sarah Hicks of Melrose Highlands, and Mr. Jacob Emerson of Roslindale spent camp meeting week at their Hamline avenue cottage.

At 2 Bellingham path Aug. 29, Mrs. Percy S. Prince entertained Miss Fern H. Prince of Washington, D. C., also Mrs. Florence A. Jones and daughter Priscilla of Quincy.

At St. Luke's church house Aug. 29 were Mrs. Emma Somes, Mrs. Margaret Young and son and Miss Alice Wheeler, East Boston, William E. Sanford, Chelsea, Mrs. R. Lufkin, Gloucester, Mrs. Adelaide Somes and daughter of Lynn.

Mr. A. Y. Eveleth of 32 Ellis Road, Swampscott, has purchased the cottage 51 Central avenue.

Misses S. S. and D. A. L. Bacheller of Lynn occupied 2 Merrill avenue Aug. 27 to Sept. 7. They had as guests Misses Lizzie Bacheller and Clara Hunter of Lynn and Miss Etta Russell of Ipswich the latter part of camp meeting.

At the Sherburne cottage for camp meeting were Miss Jennie Muzzo of Lynn, Mrs. Pinkham, Mrs. Hooper and Mrs. Webber of Salem, and Mrs. Mary Brooks of Newburyport, who were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Hosea Sherburne of Rockport.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bridges and family of Lynn occupied the Pingree cottage on Thompson avenue the latter part of August.

Mr. James Jackson, Jr. of East Boston has been spending part of the summer with relatives in Scotland. He is expected home about Nov. 1.

About three hundred guests were entertained at the several church houses in Circle Sunday and Monday, Sept. 5 and 6. We should judge the visitors to the Grove, including those up for the day and those staying in cottages, might number about fifteen hundred. There are still a large number of cottagers occupying their cottages.

Rev. J. W. Higgins acted as chaplain for August until camp meeting, and Rev. Mr. Nickerson has preached since camp meeting.

Lawn Tennis.

The Asbury Grove Lawn Tennis Club closed the season of 1909 on Saturday, Aug. 28, when the annual meeting was held. The following officers were elected: President, Everett E. Jewett; Vice President, Miss Grace Moody; Secretary, Miss Edna Black; Treasurer, Harold Moody; Executive Committee, club officers, also Earle Downing and Mrs. C. H. Kennerson.

The tournament committee reported as follows: Men's singles, won by Everett Jewett, runner up, Harold Moody; ladies' singles won by Miss Edna Black, runner up, Miss Marion Robbins, men's doubles, won by Harold Moody and Herbert Richardson, runners up, Everett Jewett and Walker W. Daly.

The prizes, medals for the winners of the men's singles and doubles, and a book, British poems, presented by the retiring president, E. W. Jewett, were awarded later.

After the meeting a photograph of the members of the club was taken by Harrie Durham, the Grove photographer.

Fire Near Asbury Grove.

The Emmons cottage, just outside the Grove, near Peatfield's store, was burned to the ground Sept. 1. Total loss. It is said there was no insurance.

Asbury Gleaners.

The society known as the Asbury Gleaners began its work at Asbury Grove in 1872. The first work was to support an orphan in India, who was converted and later married a local preacher.

Also in the early 70's the Society assumed the support of a Bible woman in Mexico. When the work in India was dropped, a scholarship, named the Mary Lizzie Alden scholarship, was established in the Aoyama school in Tokio, Japan. Through the assistance of this scholarship, four girls—Michi Kanakama, Toyo Sato, Otake and Chujo Izuno have received an education, and with the exception of the last one, who is still in school, have gone out to do Christian work.

To continue this work it is necessary to raise $100 a year.

The Asbury Gleaners held their annual fair in the Melrose house, Wednesday afternoon and evening, Aug. 18.

Miss Elizabeth Smith, one of the originators of this missionary society, presided at one of the tables, having as assistants, Mrs. Haggerty and Miss Johnson. Mrs. Chase was at the fancy table with Mrs. Letteney and Mrs. Hathaway. Mrs. J. A. Johnson and Miss Hawkes had charge of the candy table, the children's table was in charge of Mrs. Pratt and a number of children. Mrs. Babb presided over the packages, Misses Marjorie Babb, Edith Fowler, Marion Pedrick, and Marion Letteney assisting. Miss Gale had charge of the ice-cream, with Richmond Reith, Misses Vera Downing, Gladys Whitehouse, Carla Kenerson, and Dorothy Daly assistants.

The usual amount of money was raised and the ladies in charge take this opportunity of thanking each and every one who in any way contributed to make the affair a success.

Asbury Grove Camp Meeting, August 29th to September 6th, 1909.

Rev. ARTHUR P. SHARP, D. D., Superintendent of Lynn District.

The Fifty-first Annual Camp Meeting at Asbury Grove was under the direction of Rev. A. P. Sharp, D. D., district superintendent of Lynn district.

Saturday morning the news was received by telephone that our beloved President, Rev. Lewis B. Bates of East Boston, had passed away Friday afternoon, and we all entered upon the preparation of the camp meeting with sad hearts.

Sunday, Aug. 29.

The District Superintendent was called to East Boston to the Bethel, Dr. Bates' church, and Rev. George Whitaker, D. D., had charge of the W. F. M. S. services held in the Circle at 10 a. m. A good choir, under charge of chorister Smith and organist Melville voiced sweet music. Dr. Whitaker read Isaiah xxxv and offered prayer. He spoke feelingly of the loss of our beloved president, Dr. Bates. Mr. L. B. Smith rendered a solo, "I shall see him face to face." Mrs. Lucy Harrison, Gen. Sec. of Children's work in Pasadena, California, spoke on the work of the W. F. M. S. She has an excellent voice and was listened to with close attention. She said, "You and I want to keep abreast of God's movements in the world. This Society was born in New England in the Tremont St. M. E. church, Boston. Some one has said that Bethlehem taught the world that child study was the noblest study in the world. Children are made life members of the 'Little Light Bearers' on payment of ten dollars." She called for life members and the little daughter, Mabel Sulmonetti, of Rev. Frank P. Sulmonetti, the Italian minister at Morgan chapel, was presented by her parents as one, and Maxwell Greenleaf Melville, son of George C. Melville of Lynn, was the second child given as a life member. Mrs. Harrison spoke of the pound party, where the babies were assessed a cent a pound, as one way of raising money in Trinity church, Worcester. The missionary hymn, "From Greenland's icy mountain," was sung at close.

At 2 p. m. Mrs. Harrison spoke to the children in the chapel on the "Life of children in Japan."

At 3 p. m. a large number of people assembled in the Circle to hear about the work of the W. F. M. S. The new presiding elder, Dr. Sharp, had returned from East Boston, and was in charge of the service of the afternoon. Heavy clouds in the sky caused a hasty departure for the Tabernacle, which was reached just in time to escape a wetting. The praise service had started in the Circle, and "There shall be showers of blessing," was sung in the Tabernacle. Miss Sarah Speare sang a solo. Rev. A. P. Sharp, D. D., read the scriptures, Matt. viii: 16, onward, and offered prayer. He then introduced Rev. Robert Forbes, of Philadelphia, Cor. Sec. of Home Missions of the M. E. church. His subject was "The place of Methodism in America, or America among the Nations." Among other things, he spoke on the influence of women, and said "that a woman was the beginning of Methodism. There are 130,000 women connected with the W. F. M. S. The United States of America is the greatest mission-field on the earth. The greatest mission field on the globe is New York. The best material God could find was used in laying the foundation of this continent." Mr. Armour of Lynn sang, "Jesus, Lover of my Soul." Dr. Sharp referred to the work of the deceased president, Dr. Bates, who loved Asbury Grove, and is so much missed by all. The closing hymn was "Work for the night is coming." The benediction was pronounced by Dr. Whitaker.

At 6 p. m. a glorious meeting was held in Jesse Lee Hall, led by Dr. Whitaker, who took for his text, Hebrews xli: 1, 3; and subject, "Following Christ."

At 7 p. m. the services in the Tabernacle opened with praise, under chorister Smith and organist Melville. Rev. C. O. Peterson of Wakefield read the scripture, Isaiah xxxviii, laying emphasis on the thought, "Undertake for me," and offered prayer. Messrs. Smith and Armour sang a duet. Evangelist Thomas Harrison spoke on "Prayer." A consecration service was held at the close and was closed with prayer by Rev. E. E. Small of Marblehead.

Monday, Aug. 30.

The 6 a. m. meeting at the stand was largely attended and was led by Mr. Otis M. Chase of Boston, who spoke from Psalm xxvii: 4. It was a beautiful day.

At 9 a. m. the service in the chapel was led by Deaconess Mary A. Taggett. She spoke from Psalm cxvii: 12. Deaconesses Sadie A. Hagan and Susie D. Colson were present.

The 10 a. m. service was held in the Circle under charge of District Superintendent Sharp, who read the Scripture, Malachi iii: 1-13, and Rev. Alonzo Sanderson offered prayer. The singing was under charge of chorister Smith and organist Howe. A solo, "Wonderous Love," was sung by Mr. Smith. Rev. George Whitaker was the preacher of the morning. He took for his text, Malachi iii: 10, and said "Christianity is not a sentiment nor a doctrine, a form nor a usage, but a divine supernatural plan of God with which to obtain salvation and eternal life. It provides a great blessing, the condition being the proper presentment of ourselves to God. It involves separation from every sinful thing, a complete consecration to him and his service, that we may prove the divine promise of a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive, for pardon, holiness, usefulness and heaven. 'Take hold of the hand of Jesus.' Closed with the hymn, 'Blessed assurance,' and benediction.

1 p. m. The little folks' meeting was held in the chapel. Deaconess Taggart was the leader. Miss Edna Black was the organist. Psalm xxiii was repeated by audience; prayer was offered by the Deaconess, Miss Hagan of Boston, and the hymn, "Father, we thank Thee," was sung with mandolin accompaniment. The subject was "The Call Bells of the Bible."

At 2.30 p. m. an enthusiastic praise service was held in the Circle under charge of chorister Smith and organist Howe. District Superintendent Sharp opened the service. Rev. John F. Phillips read the Scriptures, Job xxix: 1-17, and offered prayer. Miss Spear sang a solo. The preacher of the afternoon, Rev. Robert Forbes, Cor. Sec. of the Board of Home Missions, chose for his text, Hebrews xiii: 8, "Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today and forever." He said "Everything else is changing. We are changing. The change from infancy to old age is surprising. Our thoughts are changing. Mountains will not last forever. Hope is the Goddess who presides over the future, memory over the past. Home and music and poetry cannot be defined. Don't say 'Only a man.' It is a great thing to be a man. When we see a perfect man we will see God. Don't say 'Jesus was only a man,' but shout it out, 'He was the ONLY MAN!' Don't take questions of faith and confound them with questions of scholarship. 'Christ is unchangeable and unchanging.'"

1. In His teachings. When God made a revelation of Himself to the world, it was to the common people. He does so now. God himself is limited by our limitations. You cannot speak to a child as you do to a man. When God gave His truth to the world, He incarnated that truth in the Son of Mary. God's revelation is brought within the reach of the common people. No one ever thought of revising the teachings of Jesus Christ. The Constitution of the United States is a wonderful document. Brainy men drew it up. We make amendments to the Constitution. The world never dreamed of any improvement on Jesus of Nazareth.

2. In His relation to Penitent Sinners. Jesus Christ taught truth in the concrete. The whole New Testament is a picture gallery.

3. In His relation to little Children. It is our business not to let the devil pluck the children out of the Saviour's hands. Don't keep them away from the communion. Give your children a fair chance for heaven.

4. In His relation to all Bereaved and Sorrowing Ones. The brave man hides his sorrows. Death is an awful thing. 'Jesus wept.' The heart of the Infinite is breaking with pity at our bereavements."

He closed by quoting the following beautiful lines:

"Come again, the Son of God,
Come walking on the sea;
And let the mainland hear the word
That sets the islands free."

Dr. Sharp made the closing prayer and gave the benediction.

At 6 p. m. meetings were held in Lafayette St., Salem house, Rev. Chas. Tilton, leader. The subject was Psalm xxii; W. C. Wheaton led an interesting meeting in Wakefield house; Rev. J. W. Higgins led a meeting in the Washington St., Newburyport house.

At 7 p. m. the meeting in the Tabernacle opened with praise by the choir under chorister Smith and organist Howe. Rev. F. J. Hall read the Scriptures, John i: 35 onward, and offered prayer. A solo with mandolin accompaniment, "Ashamed of Jesus," was sung by Mr. Smith. Short addresses were made by one of the deaconesses on "Girls," and by Rev. Wilbur Chaffee on "Boys." The preacher of the evening, Evangelist Harrison, spoke from Matt. xxvii: 22, "What shall I do with Jesus." He emphasized the letter "I," making it a personal matter with all present.

Tuesday, Aug. 31.

The 6 a. m. service, although very cold, was held at the stand and led by Rev. E. C. Bridgman, who spoke from John x, 9, 10. He said "Jesus came that we might have life and have it more abundantly." District Superintendent Sharp was present and spoke of Dr. Bates, quoting some lines from Dr. Bates' book, written on his life.

At 8.30 o'clock Rev. J. W. Higgins led a meeting in Washington St., Newburyport house. The subject was "Comforting power of the Gospel," from John xiv: 1-16. At the same hour the first boys' meeting was held at the stand by Rev. Wilbur G. Chaffee, his subject being "Wells without water."

At 9 A. M. the young women's meeting was held in the chapel, under Deaconess Mary A. Taggart.

At 10 a. m. an enthusiastic praise service opened the morning services. Rev. H. G. Butler read John xvi and offered prayer. Mr. Smith sang a solo, "Come ye yourselves apart." The preacher of the afternoon, Rev. Wm. Hodge, took for his text 1 Sam. x: 26, "A band of men whose hearts God has touched." He said, "The world needs today a band of men whose hearts God has touched. Jesus Christ is a revelation of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit comes into our life and takes the place Christ occupied when he was with the disciples. The world is in need of the Gospel. Our own christian land is in need of the Gospel. Our personal responsibility must be felt. We come with our own individuality. We must do our work, fill our place, so that this world will be a better place. Every man has his own personal responsibility. Rev. E. C. Bridgman followed, saying, "It is the touching of the heart by the spirit of God that will make us obedient to the Divine will." Prayers were offered by Rev. Chas. Tilton and F. M. Estes. "The Son of God goes forth to war," was then sung by all, after which the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Wm. Hodge. Rev. E. C. Bridgman had charge of these services in the absence of Dr. Sharp.

At 1 p. m. the children's meeting was held in the chapel, under charge of Miss Susan Colson, deaconess, of Boston. About 90 were present. Subject, "Lesson on the talents." The Call Bell was Matt. xi: 28.

The 2.30 p. m. service was in charge of Rev. A. S. Howe. Chorister Smith and organist Howe and the chorus choir opened the service of song with the glorious hymn, "Trust and obey." The Scripture, Matt. vi: 19 onward, was read and prayer offered by C. S. Otto. A solo by Rev. F. M. Estes, Miss Estes, organist, "O make me clean," followed. Rev. A. S. Howe made some interesting remarks, introducing Rev. F. M. Estes, the preacher of the afternoon, who spoke from James iv: 14, "What is your life." He said, "While there is a large throng that is striving to make a living, there is another one that is striving to make a life." I thank God that there are those who are making a life. It pays to make a life. Martin Luther did not make more than $300 a year, but he made a life. John Bunyan made a life. David Livingston made a life. Henry M. Stanley made a life. The apostle Paul, that glorious man of God, made a life. All the churches of Europe and America sprang from a single seed sowed in the heart of a woman. Even today there is a great army of souls who are making it their business to serve God. The great question in which we are concerned is the great question of making a life. A man's life consisteth not in the abundance of things which he possesseth. A prince whom we all loved has fallen, Dr. L. B. Bates, the one most missed in Methodism. Dr. Bates made a life. He was the great tree in the forest of Methodism. In all these centuries that man, Jesus Christ, has made a life. Let us follow in the footsteps of Our Master." He closed with a short prayer. Mr. Smith sang a solo, "He lifted me."

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

The latter part of the services were devoted to a memorial service of Dr. Bates. His picture, loaned by the Bethel, and wreathed in greenery, was placed in front of the pulpit. The hymn, "Shall we gather at the river," was beautifully rendered by the choir and congregation, under the leadership of Messrs. Smith and Howe. Dr. Whitaker had charge of the services and paid a glowing tribute to our beloved president. He quoted the beautiful lines by Alfred Tennyson, "Crossing the Bar." Rev. M. E. Wright followed, saying, "He was a model for us all, he was so filled with the spirit of salvation. He never entertained the slightest doubt of the saving power in Jesus Christ. He proclaimed the wideness of God's mercy. He proclaimed the truth of Jesus Christ to all. I never heard anything else from Brother Bates. 'Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners.' I simply came here today to put a wreath on the freshly made grave of our brother." Miss Spear and Mr. Smith sang a duet, "Looking this way." Rev. Chas. Tilton said, "Brother Bates was fitted to fill the highest places. I feel the force of those words, 'O death, where is thy sting, O grave, where is thy victory?' Whoever had a hand like Brother Bates. There are hundreds and thousands of children grown to manhood who have felt the pressure of that hand on their head." The choir sang "No burdens yonder." Dr. Whitaker said, "If Dr. Bates had lived till November he would have been 80 years of age." He eulogized in well chosen words our beloved Dr. Bates. Mr. Blanchard followed, saying, "I became acquainted with Brother Bates in 1885, when he became my pastor in South Boston. He was like his blessed Master. He never tired of the burden we put upon him." Prayer was offered by Dr. Whitaker. The hymn, "There's a land that is fairer than day," was sung at the close of the services.

At 6 p. m. interesting services were held in several of the church buildings. Rev. Chas. Tilton led a glorious one at the Lafayette St., Salem church building.

At 7 p. m. the services in the Tabernacle were opened with praise by choir and congregation. Rev. A. F. Reimer read Hebrews xiii, and offered prayer. Evangelist Harrison took for his subject, "Martha and Mary." Rev. M. G. Prescott gave the benediction.

Wednesday, Sept. 1.

At 6 a. m. a glorious service was held at the stand. Rev. J. W. Higgins was the leader. The subject was "Joy", and Phil. iv was read. About fifty were present.

At 8.30 a. m. Rev. J. W. Higgins led a service in Peabody building; subject, "A Little Child."

At the same hour the boys' meeting was held at the stand. A large number attended the services.

At 9 o'clock the young women's meeting held in the chapel brought out a good congregation. The deaconesses, Misses Taggart, Hagan and Colson had charge of the services.

At 10 a. m. a large congregation listened to the soul-inspiring hymns sung by the choir and congregation under Messrs. Smith and Howe. Many clergymen were present, including Revs. Knotts, Fisk, Reimer, Osgood, Howe, Estes, Phillips, Tilton, Dr. Mudge, Gerrish, Adams, Fisk, Higgins, Alley, Sanderson and others. Rev. A. M. Osgood read the Scriptures, Rev. i: 10 onward, and offered prayer. Mr. Smith sang about "The Love of Jesus." Dr. Sharp made interesting remarks. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. F. Knotts, who took for his text Job xiv: 14, "If a man die shall he live again." He said "No man can do his best who lives in one world alone and who dreams of no other. Today we ought to be living the life immortal. At our best we believe in immortality, but we are not always at our best. We are living in the most progressive period of the world's history. That is the verdict of the world as to the soul's immortality. Prof. Hecker says 'that God and Freedom and Immortality are the three things that Science must destroy.' The hostilities between reason and faith have ceased. Philosophy teaches us that the realities of life are hidden, that somewhere in our body is the unseen man who is not subject to decay. It is impossible to weigh the motives of our fellow beings in this world. Science says 'there is no death.' 'Everything,' says science, 'is alive.' The church has come to see that the purposes of God are not to be measured by days and years, but by eternity. Science believes in the indestructibility of matter. What is a will? What is a love? What is a personality? Jesus Christ founded his empire upon love and today millions would die for him. 1.—The very nature of life insists that the soul is immortal. 2.—The brevity and incompleteness of life insists upon immortality. Bishop Haven said 'I believe in the resurrection.' Jesus' testimony 'The Son of Man shall be betrayed into the hands of sinners, but the third day he shall rise again.' If Jesus Christ is God and the only God, then I will follow Him through heaven and hell, the earth, the sea and the air." The hymn, "When the roll is called up yonder," was sung and Rev. Alonzo Sanderson gave the closing prayer, all joining in the Lord's prayer and also the benediction, which closed the morning's services in circle.

The 1 p. m. services were well attended and of much interest.

The 2.30 p. m. services were held in the Tabernacle, for it was raining. Mr. Smith sang a solo, "Can the Lord depend on you." The Scripture reading, Mark x: 35-46, and prayer was by Rev. E. B. Marshall of Reading. Solo, "Rock of Ages", was finely rendered by Miss Myrtle Lynch of Lynn. Rev. H. F. Legg preached from II Cor. ii: 14, "Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ." He said "If you are out in the world you must learn to submit. The man who learns it the best, the man who knows what self-mastery is, will know what it is to be master of others."

Submission to the will of God is the spirit of the true Christian.

'Man not to make reply,
Mau but to do and die.'

The only road to true success is the one that Paul found out and that Paul travelled. Young man, young woman, if the supreme thought of your mind has been to win, you can win by taking Christ." Rev. H. F. Legg made a prayer. A hymn was then sung and Rev. A. M. Osgood led in a glorious love feast during the thunder shower, in which many testified for the Lord's side. A large number took part in the altar service which followed. Rev. A. M. Osgood offered prayer and the hymn, "When the roll is called up yonder" was sung with much feeling.

At 6 p. m. services were held in the Peabody house, Rev. J. W. Higgins, leader; also in the Wakefield house, Rev. H. G. Butler, leader, and the Salem House, Rev. W. Reimer, leader.

The 7 p. m. service opened with a service of song. Rev. L. W. Adams read the Scriptures and offered prayer. Miss M. A. Taggart, deaconess, sang with mandolin accompaniment, "O, for a glimpse of Jesus." Rev. Moses G. Prescott preached a good sermon from Matt. xxviii: 20, "Lo I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world." Mr. Harrison was not well and Mr. Prescott kindly consented to assist him. The meeting was one of great interest, and we regret that the preacher left the Grove before an outline of his sermon could be obtained. This service was held in the Tabernacle.

Thursday, Sept. 2.

At 6 a. m. the meeting at the stand was led by Rev. L. W. Adams, who spoke on the five steps in the Christian life: 1. Prayer; 2. Bible Study; 3. Attending the Means of Grace; 4. Taking part or witnessing; 5. Personal work. Dr. Mudge gave the benediction.

At 8.40 a. m. interesting meetings were held in several of the church houses, and Rev. Wilbur F. Chaffee led a most interesting meeting for boys at the stand.

At 10 a. m. the service opened in the Tabernacle with praise by the choir and congregation under chorister Smith and organist Howe. Rev. E. C. Bridgman read the Scriptures; prayer was offered by Rev. J. M. Leonard. Rev. C. E. Davis acted as chorister for several hymns sung by choir and congregation. Rev. C. E. Davis, D. D., of Wilbraham, presented the needs of that academy, and spoke of the spiritual life developed there. Bishop W. F.

Malleliou preached from Acts xi: 26, "And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch." He said, "Antioch was established 400 years before Christ. It was a Greek city, the home of culture, and was 300 miles from Jerusalem. Christianity is a tremendous force in this world. The Bible is a text book of divine philosophy and answers questions concerning man and God, concerning time and eternity. It is a system of divine philosophy that has for its object the salvation of humanity. It is the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ that gives efficiency to this volume, the Bible. A mighty revival which swept over the country early in the nineteenth century aroused the conscience of the people, and they saw that slavery was wrong. We are not half awake to the subject of rum-selling. There are one thousand rum shops in Boston to-day. Christianity will be its destroyer." (All asked to stand up if they hated the liquor traffic. A great multitude arose.) "In India the women eat with the dogs. It is Christian training that makes something of a man's brain as well as his heart." (Said he was converted at 12 years of age.) "God is going to take care of us if we are faithful to Him." An interesting altar service followed, with singing, prayer, and testimonies.

At 1 p. m. the children's meeting in the chapel, in charge of the deaconesses, was most interesting.

At 1 p. m. the first Epworth League meeting was held in the Melrose house, and was led by Rev. C. E. Bridgham. The address was made by J. Franklin Knotts. He was followed by Bishop Mallalieu and Rev. Charles E. Davis, principal of Wilbraham Academy, also Rev. D. H. Gerrish.

ANNUAL MEETING.

At 1 p. m. the meeting of delegates of cottagers, churches and the Corporation was held in Jesse Lee Hall, Rev. J. M. Leonard, D. D., in charge. District Superintendent Sharp was nominated to preside at the meeting, to take the place of the late President, Dr. L. R. Bates. Prayer was offered by Rev. A. M. Osgood, closing with the Lord's prayer.

Mr. M. Robson, in his report, spoke of Dr. Bates, saying, "There was not so much difference between his age and mine, but I have always looked upon him as a father. He wanted to encourage us all. There was only one Dr. Bates. If he were here it were not possible to have a failure. We love his memory well enough to be true to him and the interests of the Grove. I meet the superintendent and we talk things over, and we plan the best we know how. We would like to have people come here who have a Christian influence, not particularly Methodists. Mr. Mann tells me that there is a better class of people in the Grove this year. Spoke of the expenditures for the gypsy moths. The total amount from 1905 through 1909 is $1,891.30.

Rev. A. M. Osgood spoke of the press and read the report of the Asbury Mentor, which showed that the monthly paper and new Grove directory had been placed in every church house, and that copies had been sent to pastors in the Lynn district, which report was accepted. It was voted especially to extend the thanks of the Association to Mr. Hutt, reporter on the Lynn Item and Salem News, for his good reports in those papers; also thanks were extended to the press in general for all kindnesses shown. Mr. Osgood also spoke of the excellent work of the entertainment committee, and the amicable adjustment of the year's entertainment.

The acting chairman of the library committee, Mrs. Amy J. Haggerty, gave her report. Library opened June 19, closed Aug. 28, a period of ten weeks.

During the summer death has been busy in our midst, and has taken Dr. L. B. Bates, the founder of the library, the one whose name it bears, and Rev. R. P. Walker, the chairman of the library committee.

Thanks are due to all who helped make the candy sales and concerts held this summer a success, and especial thanks are due to Mrs. Cottam for her kindness in getting up the children's concert.

The report was accepted.

A motion was made and accepted that Rev. George Whitaker, D. D., prepare a suitable memoir of Rev. Raymond P. Walker. The same committee was elected for the coming year: Miss Ida P. Johnson, Mrs. Amy N. Haggerty, Misses Edna L. Black, Vivian Fowler, and M. Louise Hawkes. Rev. R. P. Walker's place will be filled later.

The treasurer's report was read by Rev. J. M. Leonard, D. D. It was approved and accepted. Rev. A. M. Osgood, J. W. Higgins, and Dr. Whitaker were among the speakers. The entertainment committee was given a vote of thanks. A committee of three persons on the library building was appointed, one each from the Corporation, the Ladies' Aid and the Library Committee, to submit plans and specifications for a library building for the Association. It was voted to erect a library building at the earliest possible moment.

At 2.30 p. m. services were held in the Circle, opened with praise by the choir and Chorister Smith and Organist Howe. The Scriptures, James i, was read by Rev. F. J. Hale, and prayer offered by Rev. A. Sanderson, closing with the Lord's prayer. A solo by Mr. Freer followed. The sermon was by Rev. H. S. Wilkinson, who preached from the texts, Matt. iv: 1, and Hebrews iv: 15. He said, "We must some time come to that experience when we must struggle alone. To Jesus temptation was a force. After fasting forty days, he was tempted." Three points were taken up. He said, "I—Physical, was answered by 'man does not live by bread alone'; II—Spiritual; 'Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God'; III—Material and Worldly, was answered by Jesus, 'Get thee hence, Satan, thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve.' Sin is a sad and bitter mistake. Success without the grace of God is but a bubble, and it will eventually burst. Jesus reaches out his hand and says, 'Have courage, I have been there myself.' Temptations met and vanquished have lent their strength to our character. We will come off more than conqueror through Him who loved us and gave Himself for us." The closing hymn, "Jesus paid it all," was followed with the benediction by Dr. Sharp.

At 6 p. m. prayer and testimony meetings were held in several of the church houses. That at the Beverly building was led by Rev. D. H. Gerrish.

The 7 p. m. service opened with praise under Organist Howe and Chorister Smith. Part of the service was a testimony meeting, verses out of the Bible being quoted. Miss Spear sang a solo, and Rev. Alfred Woods read John i and Hebrew i and offered prayer, after which Evangelist Harrison gave one of his unique talks and the congregation was dismissed. Mr. Harrison has influenced several to give their hearts to Christ. His subject was, "One thing thou lackest." This service was held in the Tabernacle.

Friday, Sept. 3.

The 6 a. m. service was led by Rev. Charles Tilton of Winthrop. He read 1 Cor. xii, and his subject was "Love." There were many testimonies, and the service closed with prayer.

At 8.30 a. m. Rev. J. W. Higgins led a union meeting of several of the church houses in the Washington, Newburyport, building. He spoke from Romans x: 1, 2. It was a good service.

Rev. Wilbur Chaffee held the boys' meeting at the stand in the Circle at 8.30 a. m.

The 9 o'clock service in the chapel for young women was a most interesting one, and was in charge of the Deaconesses.

The 10 a. m. service was held in the Circle and opened with praise. Rev. Alfred Noon read the Scriptures, Hebrews xi, and offered prayer. The solo by Chorister Smith, "For I can find Him anywhere," was sung with the true spirit. Rev. A. C. Skinner preached from Daniel vi: 10, taking for his subject, "Christian character." He said: "How to get on in the world and make our one life a success is a burning question. Let us learn the Divine art of prayer. Let us practice the presence of God. Let us surrender ourselves to the transforming power of the Divine touch; so shall we, beholding, as in a mirror, the glory of the Lord, be transformed into the same image from glory to glory." Prayer and singing closed the service, and Rev. H. S. Wilkinson pronounced the benediction. This service was of great interest.

At 1 p. m. the Epworth League service in the Melrose building. Rev. Charles Tilton was the leader, Miss Florence Hurd, pianist; Rev. Henry E. Moore, prayed; and Rev. E. B. Marshall spoke from Acts v: 28, "Ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine." There were many testimonies.

The Little Folks' meeting was held in the chapel at 1 p. m.

At 1 p. m. the annual love feast was held at Jesse Lee Hall. Rev. Alonzo Sanderson of Lynn led the song service. The meeting was in charge of Rev. D. H. Gerrish, whose subject was "Service." Prayers were offered by District Superintendent, Dr. Sharp, and Rev. L. W. Adams. The Scripture was read by Rev. H. S. Wilkinson. It was literally a feast of love.

The 2 p. m. meeting was held in the Circle. After a delightful song service, Rev. E. C. Bridgham read the Scriptures, Matt. xix: 6 onward. Prayer was offered by District Superintendent Sharp. Chorister Smith sang most beautifully "What will you do with Jesus," touching many hearts. Rev. E. C. Bridgham was the afternoon preacher, and took for his text Psalm xlii: 1. He said, "My immortal soul can and does find satisfaction in the living God. As light to the eye and water to the body, so is the gift of God to the soul. When Jesus came he did not bring the gift of an old cistern, but the living water. It never fails. It meets all of man's needs, both in this life and in that which is to come. In Jesus Christ there is not only salvation, but there is a fullness everywhere. I want Jesus Christ or nothing—no substitutes. Broken cisterns cannot replace the living water."

A most glorious after service followed.

At 6 p. m. services were held in Washington St., Newburyport, house, led by Rev. Alfred Wood; also in the Lafayette St., Salem, house, led by Rev. N. B. Fisk, and in the Wakefield house.

The 7 p. m. service was held in the tabernacle. Songs of praise under Chorister Smith and Organist Howe opened the meeting. They truly made melody in their hearts to the Lord. The Scriptures, Acts ix, were read, and prayer offered by Rev. J. E. Charlton. Miss Spear sang a solo. Evangelist Harrison opened this service with prayer, then spoke from I Chron. xxviii: 9. The services were of much interest, and several accepted Christ as their Saviour.

Saturday, Sept. 4.

At 6 a. m. the meeting at the stand was led by Rev. F. J. Hale, who spoke from Col. iii, the subject being "Abiding things."

At 8.30 a. m. Rev. J. W. Higgins led an interesting meeting and spoke on "Pentecost."

At 8.30 a. m. the boys' meeting, under Rev. Wilbur Chaffee, was most interesting.

The young ladies' meeting at the Chapel, at 9 a. m., was full of interest.

The 10 a. m. service opened with praise by choir and congregation, under their leaders, Messrs. Smith and Howe. Rev. J. W. Ward read the Scriptures and offered prayer. Mr. Smith sang a solo. The District Superintendent, Rev. A. P. Sharp, made remarks, there was more singing, then the preacher of the morning, Rev. W. E. Vandermark, took for his text, Mark x: 21, "Come, follow me." He said, "When you have consecrated your life to the service of mankind, there comes the command, 'Follow Me.' Compare these two lives, the young man of the text and St. Paul. Both of them had the true conception of life. The rich young man went away sorrowful, for he was not willing to pay the price. He found Jesus Christ a stumbling block, and he stumbled. Paul said, 'What wilt thou have me to do?' What did Jesus mean when he said, 'follow me?' Jesus' life was always a life of service. The man's life who has just left us, Dr. Bates, was one of service. Jesus' life was a life of prayer. The one thing we need is to take hold of God." He closed with prayer, and "Where He leads me, I will follow," was sung, and the benediction pronounced by Rev. E. C. Bridgman. This meeting was held in the Circle.

At 1 p. m. the children's meeting in Chapel was led by Miss Susie Colson, who talked on "Bennie and Bessie."

At 1 p. m. the Epworth League held their meeting in the Melrose building. Rev. L. W. Adams spoke on Psalm xci. Rev. E. C. Bridgman was one of the speakers.

At 2 p. m. a service of song opened the meeting, and Chorister Smith sang a solo, "Home of the Soul." The sermon was preached by Rev. C. H. Atkins from the text found in Rev. xxi: 2. He said, "This great and beautiful city which John saw in his vision is a symbol of a precious reality. This reality is not heaven itself, but the church of the ages, in its final state of blessedness in heaven. The church, in its perfected, triumphant and glorified condition, when it shall at last have emerged from all the sufferings of time, is what is symbolized by the holy city. And what arrests our attention most is not the indescribable glory of the redeemed church, but the thought of the city of God descending to the believer and the conviction that heaven has a vital interest both in and for us. The great practical purpose of this vision which has been placed on record for us is to furnish us with some of the grandest of all incentives to Christian faith, perseverance and service. First among these is a conviction of the reality of heaven. Not where is heaven, but what is the soul's deepest query. Symbols come short of the realities for which they stand, but they are not the less true on this account, and the peace, power and joy of the redeemed church in heaven are set forth with great clearness and comfort in John's vision. Heaven would not be heaven without the redeemed church, and the last conviction with which we can afford to part is the reality of heaven. Another great truth of which the descending city of God cannot fail to remind us is the communion of saints. The church on earth is a small part of the whole family of God in earth and heaven, and our communion with the saints of all time is maintained as often as we engage in acceptable worship of God, in vicarious sacrifice for the church, and in the anticipation of our final destiny. Last of all, the descending of our God, prepared at the last as a bride adorned for her husband, brings home to us and animates us with the thought of the full glory of final redemption. The vision of this descending city is for all true believers, and its great truths should have a practical place in human life."

Rev. E. C. Bridgman had charge of an interesting after service.

At 6 p. m. interesting meetings were held in the Tapleyville house, under charge of Rev. N. P. Fisk; the Wakefield house, under Rev. Alonzo Sanderson. They were glorious services. Also by Rev. J. W. Higgins in People's house.

At 7 p. m. the services held in the tabernacle were most interesting. Dr. A. P. Sharpe preached from Luke xv: 11 onward. Prayer was offered by Rev. James Elliott. The solos by Mr. Smith and Miss Spear was soul-inspiring. Rev. J. E. Charlton preached from Romans viii: 32. It was an interesting service and was listened to with close attention. Evangelist Harrison held an afternoon service, which was productive of much good. The cool evening prevented many from attending the service, although many were present despite the fact.

Sunday, Sept. 5.

The 6 a. m. service at the stand was well attended. Rev. W. B. Vankelburgh was leader and spoke from Acts. iii. Mr. Chase spoke of Dr. Bates.

The boys' meeting was held at the stand, at 8.30 a. m. Rev. Wilbur Chaffee had charge.

At 9 a. m. the love feast was held in the chapel in charge of District Superintendent Sharp. Rev. H. G. Butler read John iv: 7 onward and Psalm cxlii. Rev. E. C. Bridgman offered prayer.

The love feast was opened by Rev. Alonzo Sanderson, who eulogized Dr. L. B. Bates in the following beautiful words:

"I should do injustice to my own sense of honor and justice if I did not in this love feast mention the name of the honored and everywhere loved man of God who was to have led this meeting, our dear departed and now glorified brother Lewis B. Bates.

For forty-four years he attended the camp-meetings at Asbury Grove. These tall and gigantic pines are witnesses of his faithfulness. Tall and commanding, his voice could be easily heard to the uttermost bounds of the camp. The birds ceased their singing to listen, while the squirrels in the trees stood still, and thousands rejoiced and wept.

It is safe to say that no man in Methodism since the days of John Wesley and George Whitefield preached to greater audiences, or exerted a greater influence for good or was more universally esteemed and beloved.

We will not unduly mourn and lament his departure, but rather rejoice that after a long and useful life, he has passed on unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, to the general assembly of the first-born which are written in heaven, to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect. Thither we will look and thither we will hope to join him and all the loved ones gone before us in our eternal joy."

Mrs. Harvey, his daughter, sent in her testimony: "Underneath are the everlasting arms." "He leadeth me" was sung by the choir and congregation. About eighty spoken testimonies and a great number of silent testimonies, nearly all present rising when asked to give their testimony. The tabernacle was well filled.

The 10 a. m. service followed the love feast and was in charge of Dr. Sharp. Rev. Joseph Wardel prayed and Rev. Wm. Webster, D. D., read the Scriptures, Isaiah xiv. After singing by choir and congregation Dr. Sharp spoke of the past and future. Mr. M. Robson presented the financial question and spoke of our late president, Dr. Bates, who had always assisted him in this work. Rev. Wm. Webster preached one of the best sermons of the week from Isaiah li: 11, "Therefore the redeemed of the Lord shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away," his theme being "Home coming of the redeemed—the triumph of Christianity." He spoke of Rev. L. B. Bates, saying "the secret of whose greatness and glory was that he lived for others and passed no one heedlessly by. Men may call Christians old fogies and say we don't keep up with the times, the truth is the times have never kept up with the church, and all that is good in the times has come out of the Church. The song of the world today is the song of hope, because the glory of Christ is behind it. We have not a religion for whose decline or failure we may look. Men may ignore, neglect and despise it. It may be assaulted on every side by the higher critics and the lower critics, by vice and ignorance and prejudice. All in vain, for He must reign, and shall reign until all His enemies are subdued. Our God is everywhere, His right hand is full of righteousness, the heaven of truth is cast among the nations sitting out the coil, and shall leave the whole." Prayers followed by Deaconess Baker, Revs. J. W. Higgins and Alonzo Sanderson. The hymn, "Trust and Obey" was sung and Dr. Whitaker gave the benediction. (We only regret that space forbids the whole of Dr. Webster's sermon. It was a masterly one.)

At 1 p. m. the Epworth League held an interesting service in Melrose house. Rev. E. C. Bridgman read Luke xv: 1-10, "Then drew near him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him." Rev. D. H. Gerrish spoke from Luke xix: 1-10. He spoke of the Christ of the garden and the Christ of the tomb, saying "Christ knocks at our door." Miss Hurd was pianist.

The 2 p. m. service in the Tabernacle opened with praise by choir and congregation under Chorister Smith and organist Howe. Rev. Donald H. Gerrish read the Scriptures, followed by prayer. Lieut. Frank Tucker and Mrs. Ellen Slade of Chelsea sang a duet. Mr. M. Robson presented again the financial question of the Corporation. Deaconess Taggart sang a solo with autoharp accompaniment. Rev. T. W. Fessenden preached from Mark ix: 2. His theme being "On the mountain-top." He said "Jesus loved the mountains. Jesus took these three men in the text into a great experience. There is the joy of discovery in a great experience. The joy of discovery which comes to you when your heart is united to the son of God is something delightful. You will find in your heart a spring of water springing up within you. The greatest thing about a man are the lines of his face which speak of the experience of his life and soul. The Master will give you a great thought. Jesus took them up into the top of the mountain. God puts the hunger of life into the soul. You look back and wonder how life has been such a climb. We are up-hill people. I hear as of old the Master saying 'Let us go up into the mountain.' The after service was led by Rev. J. W. Higgins who told the story of his conversion.

The 4 p. m. service was held in the chapel for the children. (A full account of the week's services will be found at the end of today's services.)

The 6 p. m. services were most interesting.

The 7 o'clock service was held in the tabernacle, which was filled to overflowing. The praise service under Messrs. Smith and Howe was most uplifting. Mr. Smith sang a solo. Rev. E. E. Small read the Scriptures, John ix, and offered prayer. Mr. Smith sang "Why should we be dismayed," and Lieut. Tucker sang "In that beautiful land on high." Evangelist Harrison spoke in his own unique manner on "Trouble". Dr. Sharp pronounced the benediction.

At the close of the service the choir and audience marched around the tabernacle and up on the platform singing and a general hand-shaking with all the pastors followed, a fitting finale to one of the best camp meetings for years.

BOYS' MEETINGS.

The boys' meetings for the past six years have been held in a certain beautiful spot in the woods, a place rendered sacred because of the many decisions there made by the boys to lead noble, Christian lives. On Tuesday morning, Aug. 31, the meetings opened in an encouraging manner with an attendance of seventeen. The subject was "Wells without Water." On Wednesday, Sept. 1, the subject was "Spots and Blemishes", and the attendance twenty-two. There were twenty-one present on Thursday, Sept. 2, the subject being "The Unchangeable Friend". The largest attendance for any one day came on Friday, Sept. 3, when thirty-three were present. The subject for that day was "Keeping the Faith". Twenty-eight were present on Saturday, Sept. 4, and the subject was "Studying to Show Ourselves Approved unto God". The best meeting of the week came on Sunday, Sept. 5, and was held in the Wakefield house on account of the rain. The subject was "Standing on One's Feet." Among the thirty present there were several boys who were present in the meetings when they first began seven years ago. Some of these older boys gave most stirring appeals for the Christian life. Every boy in this meeting stood professing his purpose to live for Christ. During the week seven made a start for the first time.

To hear the boys offer prayer was perhaps the most inspiring feature of the meetings. In some of these meetings from fifteen to twenty would volunteer in prayer. It was a delight also to hear their simple straightforward testimonies.

Among the older boys who took part in the first meetings six and seven years ago, and were present this year were James Daly of Jamaica Plain, Earl Baker of Malden, Alden Sprague of East Boston, Francis Tilton of Winthrop, and Laurence Pedrick of Salem.

Bro. Wheaton of Linden kindly assisted the leader in the meetings. The last meeting was held on Monday morning, Sept. 6, seventeen being present. The subject was taken from Isaiah xl : 41.

CHILDREN'S MEETINGS.

The children's meetings this year were under the direction of Miss Mary A. Taggart, Supt. of the Deaconess' Home, Boston.

The children were divided into three groups, the primary, red,—the intermediate, blue,—the senior, green. Each child received a small shield of the color of their group to pin on their coat bearing their own name, and on the front wall of the chapel a correspondingly large shield was placed, on which at the close was placed a gold star for attendance and silver star for learning the daily verses from the Bible, and presented to each child.

Interesting lessons were taught daily from the Bible by Miss Taggart, or an assisting deaconess, Miss Colson. A number of songs were taught which were enjoyed by the children.

They daily responded to the roll call by a verse of scripture.

The children voted that the contents of the stone money jug which received their daily offering should be appropriated for defraying the expenses of the children's outings at the Haverhill Fresh Air House.

After the closing meeting Sunday, Sept. 5, the children carrying flags marched to the tune of "Onward, Christian Soldiers" led by Roy Whitehouse, cornetist, and elderly Brother Waddell of Chicago, from the chapel around the circle to the stand and there the jug was broken disclosing the contents, $8.42, which was increased later to $12.50.

Many friends of the children enjoyed this service, as well as several that they attended.

About 60 children were present the first day which number increased to 100 or more by the close of the meetings and on this occasion the chapel was filled with interested friends.

NOTE.

Early in the year of 1909 Miss Sarah H. Howe of Lynn, who has furnished the flowers for the platform in Circle during camp-meeting week in loving memory of Mr. Hutchinson, who was a member of the Association, was taken suddenly ill with acute indigestion and has never fully recovered.

Monday, Sept. 6.

The 6 a. m. service was held at the stand in Circle. Rev. James Elliot took for his subject "The Witnesses" from Luke xxiv : 48, "And ye are witnesses of these things."

At 8.30 a. m. the boys' meeting under Rev. Wilbur Chaffee was well attended.

At 9 a. m. the cottagers' meeting at Jesse Lee hall was an interesting one.

The children's meeting in the chapel was an enthusiastic one.

Lynn District Epworth League.

The Lynn District Epworth League held its annual convention at Asbury Grove. The leagues from Boston and Cambridge districts were invited. A large delegation from Danvers arrived too late for the service, and were much disappointed in being unable to hear Rev. C. S. Gray.

At 11 a. m. department conferences were held in the various church buildings as follows:

Department of Spiritual Work in Wakefield house, led by Rev. A. F. Reimer of Beverly, assisted by Miss Alice Perkins of Ipswich, one of the Board of Directors of the district. First Vice Pres. Mr. Alexander Kerr of Malden in charge.

The Department of World Evangelism in Jesse Lee hall. Second Vice Pres. Miss Mabel Nowell, Saugus, in charge. Devotions led by Rev. W. G. Chaffee. A most interesting talk on India by Miss F. L. Nichols. Miss Nowell spoke on Mission Study helps, and various workers present presented helps for Mission study classes.

The Department of Mercy and Help held a session in Lafayette St., Salem, building. The third Vice Pres. Mr. F. W. Makepiece of Lynn was in charge.

Department of Social Work in Melrose house. The Fourth Vice Pres. Miss Lila M. Peabody, Lynn, in charge. Exchange of methods and address by Rev. J. E. Coons, East Saugus.

The afternoon meeting met in the Circle at 2 o'clock. The meeting opened with a praise service led by Chorister Smith and Organist Howe. District Superintendent A. P. Sharpe read the Scripture II Timothy ii, and prayed. Miss S. Gertrude Mayo, district president, was in charge and made brief remarks on the league work. Mr. Smith sang a solo, "Come ye yourselves apart." The roll call by Mr. Noon showed a good attendance from Medford, Melrose and Peabody. Tapleville was too late for the meeting. As one expressed herself, "It is too bad. I wanted so much to hear Mr. Gray." The meeting Feb. 22 was announced to take place in the First M. E. church, Lynn. Miss Mayo introduced the afternoon speaker, Rev. O. S. Gray, the well known evangelist, who read John xiii, and spoke from the words "Jesus knowing all things, that he was come from God, and that he was going to God, took a towel and girded himself."

His subjects were "Invincible Knowledge" and "Service". Thirty-eight times in the gospel of John is it stated that "Jesus Christ knew that he came from God." It is a great thing to know that you were sent from God. Jesus knew that he came from God and that he was going to God. In the interim He became a servant. He "took a towel" and became a working man. Even after His resurrection He looked like a working man. Mary thought he was the gardener. If we are ever to get the working man in the church, we must "take a towel" and do valiant work. Spoke of joining a "One More" society. Acts of mercy lose some of their charm when we begin to talk about them. What an age we live in. What opportunities we have. Listen to the words, "As my father hath sent me, even so send I you." The speaker closed his remarks with prayer. The Doxology was sung and Rev. O. E. Mark pronounced the benediction.

The closing service was held in the Melrose House at 6 o'clock. Rev. Donald H. Gerrish of Lynn was in charge. He spoke briefly upon John xxv : 15. A most inspiring testimony service was led by Rev. John Charlton of Worcester. The service closed with the singing of "God will take care of you."

The whole week has been a glorious one and a number have found Christ. All have been strengthened "in the inner man" and are going forth to conquer through Him who loved us and gave Himself for us."

A concert under the auspices of the Library Committee was held in the Tabernacle, Wednesday evening, Aug. 11. The Bobolink Quartette of Beverly appeared here on that evening for the first time, and were enthusiastically received. They were assisted by Misses Edith Fowler and Theodosia Clark, and Mr. James Daly as readers. The latter half of the entertainment was given by the young people of the Grove, who gave "The Magic Mirror." The different characters were well represented, and a large audience was present.

By far the finest entertainment of the season was held in the Tabernacle, Thursday, Aug. 26, when the Laurel Male Quartette of Lynn appeared in a program of rare merit. The quartette consists of H. W. Sawyer, first tenor; E. F. Humphrey, second tenor; Robert Bruce, baritone; E. P. Groesbeck, basso. They were assisted by a reader, Miss Tarr of Lynn, who added greatly to the pleasure of those present.

Sixteenth Swedish M. E. Camp-Meeting August 3-9, 1909.

Tuesday, Aug. 3—Services began at 7.30 p. m. in the Swedish Tabernacle. The sermon was by District Superintendent Rev. Frank E. Broman of Brockton, from Acts II: 1-20. Subject, "Pentecostal Blessings." The organist was Mrs. C. J. Wigren and the chorister Rev. Alfred Ostlund.

Wednesday, Aug. 4—At 10 o'clock, Rev. C. E. Rydstrom of Quincy preached from John xv: 15, 16, the subject being, "The Friendship of Jesus." At 2.30 p. m., Rev. C. J. Wigren preached from Phil. II: 5, "The Mind that was in Christ be in you." At 7.30 o'clock Rev. S. L. Carlander of Lynn preached from Lamentations III: 39, "Songs of Lamentations."

Epworth League Day.

Thursday, Aug. 5—Early morning service at 7 o'clock. At 10 o'clock Rev. Alfred Ostlund of Malden preached from Third Epistle John, 8, "No greater joy than to hear that my children walk in the truth." At 2.30 o'clock, Rev. Frank E. Broman preached from Luke xv: 1-10, "The Last Sheep and Lost Coin," or "Christ Seeking the Individual." Miss Edyth Wennmark sang three solos during the morning and afternoon services. At 7.30 o'clock a young people's sermon was preached by Rev. Benedict Nilsson of Lowell, from 2 Kings II: 9, "Let a double portion of Thy Spirit be upon me," and 2 Kings II, 15 "The Spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha."

Friday, Aug. 6—Early morning service at 7 a. m. At 10 o'clock Rev. S. L. Carlander preached from Revelations XXI: 10, "The Holy City our Final Home." The afternoon meeting, at 2.30, was in charge of Mrs. Anna Randell for the Women's Foreign Missionary Society. Bible reading by Miss Emma S. Anderson, Deaconess; prayer by Rev. F. E. Broman. Mrs. Lucie F. Harrison, from Pasadena, California, General Secretary of Children's Work, W. F. M. Society, spoke interestingly on the work among the children and on organizing the Little Light Bearers. The three months' old grandson of Rev. C. J. Wigren was voted a life member, $10 to be raised for the purpose. Mrs. Holt, from Boston, also made a few remarks. The second part of the meeting was in the interest of the Woman's Home Missionary Society. Mrs. A. C. Clark, Superintendent of the Immigrant Home, East Boston, presided, and introduced the speaker, Rev. C. J. Wigren, who spoke mostly on the work of the Home and the Hull St. Medical Mission.

At 7.30 p. m., sermon by Rev. C. E. Rydstrom, Quincy. Text, Gen. 5: 22, "Walking with God." Miss Edyth Wennmark and Miss Edith Larson, from Boston, sang a duet. The organist was Mrs. C. J. Wigren.

Saturday, Aug. 7—7 a. m., prayer service, led by Miss Emma S. Anderson, Deaconess, was largely attended. 10 a. m., the sermon preached by Rev. H. Hanson of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., from Hebrews XII: 12, "Look unto Jesus." At 2.30 p. m., a platform meeting. Four pastors gave stories of their conversion. From 5 to 6 o'clock a most interesting meeting was held on "Svenska Kullen," the Swedish hill; the leader was Rev. Alfred Ostlund. At 7.30 o'clock the sermon was preached by Rev. Benedict Nilsson of Lowell, from Matt. v: 48. The organist was Miss Gerda Laurin of Lowell. The singing was by a male chorus, the choir, and Miss Edyth Wennmark.

Sunday, Aug. 8—7 a. m., prayer meeting. Leader, John Schonbom, Lowell. 10 a. m., sermon by Rev. F. E. Broman. Texts, Isa. XL: 31; 2 Cor. XII: 9. 12 m., children's meeting; leader, Mr. Kjellstrom, from Malden. 2 p. m., Rev. Alfred Ostlund preached from Eph. II: 4, 5. 5 to 6 p. m., young people's meeting, led by Mr. Oscar Johnson, Brockton. Outside meeting, Swedish Hill, 7 p. m., Rev. C. J. Wigren, Psalm XXXII: 6. The male chorus and the choir sang, marching around the Circle, their "Good Bye," with much spirit. Much good has resulted from the meetings this season.

NOTES.

The early morning meetings were held at 7 o'clock.

The organist for Aug. 3, 4, 5 and 6, was Mrs. C. J. Wigren; for Aug. 7 and 8, Miss Gerda Laurin. The chorister was Rev. Alfred Ostlund. The soloist was Miss Edyth Wennmark.

Friday, Aug. 6, at the afternoon meeting, a little grandchild of Rev. C. J. Wigren, Charles John A. Wigren, was made a life member of the children's department (the Little Light Bearers), by the payment of ten dollars.

The pastors present at the meetings were Rev. Frank E. Broman, district superintendent and pastor, Brockton; Revs. S. L. Carlander, Lynn and Rockport; Benedict Nilsson, Lowell; Alfred Ostlund, Malden; C. J. Wigren, Boston; C. E. Rydstrom, Quincy; H. Hanson, Mt. Vernon, N. Y.; N. Ackerman, Pontiac, R. I., who only paid a short visit, not long enough to preach.

In the C. E. Currier cottage, Asbury avenue, were Rev. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wigren and son Le Roy, Miss Emma S. Anderson, Deaconess, Boston, and Miss Jennie Linden, Providence, R. I.

It was decided that the District Superintendent and Pastors of the Swedish M. E. churches at Boston, Brockton, Lowell, Lynn, Malden, Quincy and Rockport, shall be members of the Association; one lay member to be elected by each church at the quarterly conference. By unanimous vote, the president was requested to thank the Asbury Grove Camp-meeting Association, through the chaplain, Rev. Mr. Whitaker, for the use of the Circle and Tabernacle on Sunday, also for all other favors granted.

Our camp-meeting this year was a great success—quite a number were converted, especially at our Sunday services. Our closing meeting was one of the best we ever had.

L. P. BLANCHARD, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Eben Blanchard of South Boston, died at his home in Hamilton, Friday, Nov. 13, 1908, after a long illness. He was an only child, and had been sick a long time. Less than two years ago he was married to Mrs. Nettie Price of 173 Williams avenue, Lynn, and she, with a young son survive; also the father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Eben Blanchard of Hedding avenue, Asbury Grove, where the deceased made hosts of friends. Funeral services were held at St. John's Methodist church, Broadway, South Boston, Nov. 16, at 1.30 p. m.

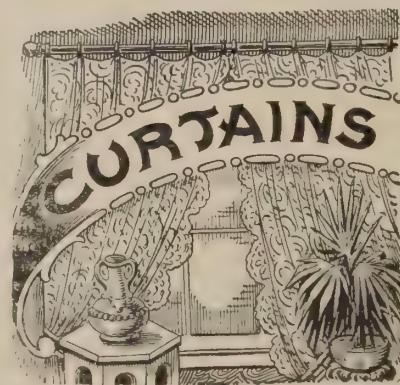

MRS. THEALIA EDDY ATKINS LEWIS died in Boston March 11, at the age of 81 years, 11 months, 16 days. She had been confined to her bed about ten months, having had a shock in June, 1908, and was helpless up to the time of her death. Her parents' names were James Harding and Arimenta Atkins of Wellfleet, Mass., where Mrs. Lewis was born March 25, 1827.

She married Joseph P. Lewis of South Wellfleet, in 1845. Mr. Lewis died in Portland, Maine, in April, 1889. There were seven children, five of whom are living.

Mrs. Lewis was a resident of Swampscott for fourteen years. She attended the Asbury Grove camp meeting from that place about forty-five years ago. Her cottage in 1885 was located on Kingsley avenue; in 1891 it was moved to its present location on Skinner avenue, where she had been every summer until 1907. Mrs. Lewis was a member of People's Temple, Boston, over forty years, being one of its oldest members.

Mrs. Lewis leaves one son and four daughters, Mrs. Minnie S. Lewis, Malden; Mrs. Eliza K. Leman and Mrs. Abbie A. Gabriel, Dorchester; Mrs. Hortense F. White, Boston; Mr. William F. Lewis, Melrose; also eight grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

Obituary.

PROF. JAMES EDWARD ABORN, musical instructor for twenty-nine years in the Lynn public schools, and also musical director for a number of years, at Asbury Grove Camp meeting, succeeding Rev. C. E. Davis of Wilbraham, after a valiant fight for life, passed away suddenly at 6 o'clock, Thursday night, Feb. 11, at the age of 55 years.

Mr. Aborn was taken suddenly ill at Laurel Park, Northampton, July, 1908, and was too ill to attend Asbury Grove camp meeting in 1908. But his recovery was always hoped for. His love for the children was recognized by them and one of his pupils said "O, mama, Prof. Aborn is dead." He was director of music at the Ocean Park Chautauqua, for three years, also at the Connecticut Valley Chautauqua for several years.

Mr. J. E. Aborn was born in Lynn, Feb. 4, 1854. He was the son of John and Emily M. Aborn, who gave him a thorough musical education. He was actively connected with the First Methodist Church, not only as musical director, but in its spiritual work, and was class leader, a member of the Official Board and for a long time Superintendent of the Sunday School. He was a member of Providence Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Mt. Carmel Lodge of Masons, and Sutton Royal Arch Chapter.

He leaves his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Aborn, his wife, one son, Edward Murton Aborn; one daughter, Mrs. Chester D. Strout; two brothers, John and Charles M. Aborn; one sister, Mrs. Albert Nutter, of Orino, Me.

The funeral services were held in the First M. E. church, Sunday afternoon Feb. 14. The school children were given an opportunity of viewing the remains from 1 o'clock to 2 o'clock, and the friends had the same privilege from 2.30 o'clock to 3 o'clock. The public school janitors were directed to place the flags on their respective schools at half staff on Saturday at 8 a. m. and to continue them at half staff till after the funeral services.

MISS LUCY TRAFTON ROBINSON, formerly of Salem, died at her home in South Hamilton at a late hour Friday night, Feb. 19. She had been ill with a heart trouble for several months but was confined to the house only three weeks. She was born in Marblehead and was the daughter of the late Samuel and Lucy Ann (Glover) Robinson. When a child she came to Salem to live and was educated here.

She learned the milliner's trade of Mrs. G. A. Copeland, who conducted a shop at her home on Crombie street. Later she succeeded to the business and afterwards was associated with Miss Annie Goodell. Thirty years ago she began business for herself alone in the store, 255 Essex street, which she continued till her death and is still being conducted by the family. She was an active member of the Tabernacle church.

About sixteen years ago she removed to Hamilton and was instrumental in establishing the People's Union church. She leaves several nieces and a nephew.

The funeral was held at her late home in South Hamilton Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 23. There were many floral tributes from relatives and friends. The services, at her home on Walnut street, were conducted by Rev. James E. Coons of East Saugus, a former pastor, assisted by Rev. Dr. Blake, the present pastor, and Rev. A. D. Gorham of South Hamilton. The body was brought to Salem and was buried in Harmony Grove cemetery by John J. Saunders.—Salem News.

She owned a cottage on Wesley Park, Asbury Grove, for many years.

MRS. JULIA, wife of Rev. Charles E. Davis, principal of the Wilbraham academy, formerly a well known preacher for the Lynn district, and for several years treasurer of the Asbury Grove Corporation and chorister during camp meeting week, died at her home in Wilbraham at 3 p. m. Monday, June 21. She had not been well for some time but attended church Sunday evening, June 20. At 4 o'clock Monday morning she suffered a shock and never regained consciousness. Besides her husband she leaves two sons, Rev. C. H. Davis of Chicopee Falls, and Raymond Davis, employed by the Library Desk Co. of Philadelphia. She was the daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. Loranus Crowell. Mr. Crowell was a former presiding elder of the Lynn district.

Mrs. Davis formed many pleasant friendships in the different cities and towns where Dr. Davis was pastor, and there are many sincere mourners.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. P. Kennedy, D. D., District Superintendent, and Rev. George A. Downey, at Wilbraham, June 23. The floral tributes were profuse and beautiful. Four ministers, Revs. C. C. P. Hiller, G. M. Crawford, E. V. Hinchliffe, and Eugene M. Antrum acted as pallbearers. The interment was on a kind of round top hill under the great evergreens, in the Dell Cemetery.

MRS. HELEN AMELIA, wife of Capt. Thomas L. Appleton, died at her summer home in South Hamilton, Saturday morning, July 17, aged 65 years and 5 months. She had been suffering with dropsy for many years, but the end came quite suddenly. Mrs. Appleton was a native of Maine, and made her home in this city with her son, Harry L. Appleton. She came to Malden to make her home shortly after the Chelsea fire, in which she lost all of her possessions.

She is survived by her husband, two sons, Harry L., of this city, and Fred of Hartford, Conn., also three sisters and a brother. The remains were brought to this city, and the funeral was held at the home of her son, Harry L., 62 Tremont street, on Monday afternoon, July 19, at 2 o'clock. Rev. William F. Dusseault of Lynn, formerly pastor of the First Universalist church of this city, officiated, and the Franklin male quartet rendered "Crossing the Bar," "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and "Some Day We'll Understand." The interment was in Forestdale cemetery.—Malden Mirror.

Mr. Appleton formerly owned a cottage on Pleasant avenue, but it was sold and moved away and Capt. Cobb had another cottage, Mrs. Stanley's, which he had purchased, moved from Maple avenue to the former site of the Appleton cottage.

MR. OLIVER P. FARRINGTON died in Lynn May 14, at the age of 62 years. One of his pastors, Rev. Alonzo Sanderson, has written the following eulogy on his life:—

"Oliver Farrington will always be remembered as a man of an excellent spirit, kindly and loving in his home, upright in life, and honorable in all the relations he sustained to his fellow-men. He was a soldier in the Civil war, and was faithful in every emergency. His example in the church was always worthy of imitation. Patient and submissive in his sickness, his end was peace."

PERCY A., son of George R. and Mary E. Dodge of South Hamilton, died May 16.

He was born in Brighton, October 10, 1880, and was in his twenty-ninth year. Besides his parents he leaves one sister and two brothers, Helen Esther, Charles F. and George J. Dodge. He moved with his parents to Hamilton, then to South Hamilton. He was a painter by trade. Rev. E. A. Blake of Union chapel had charge of the services. He was buried in the family lot in the Hamilton cemetery. There were services at the grave.

MR. CHARLES B. CROWELL of Newburyport passed away June 29. His death was very sudden, although he had been in poor health for some time.

Mr. Crowell was born in Arcadia, N. S., Dec. 3, 1836. He was a painter and chair-maker by trade. He went to Boston in 1872, where he lived about fourteen years. Then he moved to Newburyport. He had been a member of the Baptist church for many years, joining at the age of 18. By letter he joined the Baptist church in New-buryport, of which Rev. Louis A. Pope was then pastor.

Mr. Crowell was a great lover of camp meetings, and was a constant attendant at the Methodist camp meeting at Asbury Grove, going to the Washington street house. He will be greatly missed. He leaves one son, Alva L. Crowell of Lynn, and one daughter, Mrs. Lizzie K. Davis of Shelburne, N. S.

WILLIAM H. AUSTIN, a former resident of South Hamilton, living on the Israel Norwood place, just outside of Asbury Grove, passed away at his home in Chester, N. H. Aug. 9, at the age of 62 years. His body was brought to Hamilton and services held in the Union chapel Aug. 12. He leaves a wife and adopted daughter, Mrs. Pyne, of Portland, Me., where Mrs. Austin will make her future home. Mr. Austin was born in New Jersey. The first year of his married life was spent in Gloucester, and later he lived in East Gloucester, carrying on a small store there. He had charge of Centennial Grove for several years. On the death of Mr. Israel Norwood, Mr. and Mrs. Austin came to live with Mrs. Norwood. After her death the place was sold to Mr. Lewis and the Austins moved to Chester, N. H., where they lived on a farm.

MRS. AUGUSTA A. NICHOLS, widow of John M. Nichols, died Wednesday, Aug. 11, at 4.30 p. m. at her home 13-B Vinal avenue, Somerville. The funeral services were held on Saturday, Aug. 14, at 2.30 p. m. at the First Methodist church, and Rev. George S. Butters, a former pastor, officiated. The burial was in Wildwood cemetery, Winchester.

Mrs. Nichols was born in Augusta, Maine, and was sixty-nine years of age. For over twenty years she made her home in Somerville, previous to which she lived in Charlestown, when she was identified with the old Methodist church in Monument square. At the time of her death she was connected with the First Methodist church, and had been a teacher in the Sunday school. By the needy and those in distress she was regarded as a good Samaritan, ever ready to help and lend her aid. Her husband died two years ago, and the only surviving member of her family is her aged step-mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gay, now over eighty years of age. Her daughter, Miss Melintha Nichols, is still tenderly remembered.

HARRISON J. N. CROMIE, only son of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Cromie of Lynn died at his home, Friday, Aug. 20, after a short illness, at the age of 21 yrs., 1 mo., 26 days. He was taken at his cottage on Hamline avenue, Asbury Grove, and when he bade good-bye to his many friends there, they expected he would be back after a few days, but the disease baffled the skill of physicians, and in less than two weeks he had passed away.

His funeral took place Monday afternoon, Aug. 23, at 2.30 o'clock. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends, including members of Boston Street and Trinity churches, and his classmates of the English High school, class of '08. The services were conducted by Rev. William W. Bowers, pastor of Baker Memorial church, Dorchester, and former pastor of Boston Street church. Rev. Francis J. Hale, pastor of Trinity church, and Rev. Alonzo Sanderson, formerly pastor of Trinity church. Mrs. Lottie Wentworth Stevenson sang "O, Welcome Rest," and "Christian's Good Night." The floral tributes were many and beautiful, and included those of the family and friends, his classmates, associates in the railroad office, and many others. The following classmates officiated as pallbearers: Stanley Pollard, Lawrence Haskell, William Morse, Burleigh Annable, Frank Winchester, Lawrence Caldwell, Freeman Milbury, Lester Furbush and Wilbur Coolidge. The burial was in Pine Grove cemetery.

MRS. NORMA P. LORD, wife of Wilfred Lord, Melrose, and daughter of Rev. F. H. Morgan, Field Secretary of Zion's Herald, died in Holyoke, Thursday, Sept. 2, where she had spent two months with Mr. Lord, who is in the government employ. She was a member of the Melrose Methodist church.

Mrs. Lord is survived by an infant son. Besides her husband and father, she leaves two brothers, Dr. B. W. Morgan of Newton and C. B. Morgan of Melrose, also two sisters, Misses Mazie G. Morgan and Elizabeth D. Morgan of Melrose.

The interment was in Lawrence, the birthplace of Mr. and Mrs. Lord.

MISS FANNIE M. PEDLAR, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pedlar of 15 Boston street, Malden, died Friday, Sept. 3, at her home, after an illness of three years of tuberculosis. She was in her 36th year. Miss Pedlar was born in Torquay, Eng., and had been a resident of Malden for over 25 years, graduating from the Center school and attending High. She was a dressmaker by occupation, and was a member of Crystal chapter, Eastern Star, and the Robinson Methodist church. She is survived by parents, a brother, William H., and a sister, Miss Althea Pedlar. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon, Sept. 6, at 3 o'clock. Many relatives and friends attended, and the services were conducted by Rev. George H. Clarke of Sudbury, formerly pastor of the Robinson Methodist church. The burial was in Wyoming cemetery.

Mr. Pedlar formerly owned the Trueworthy cottage on Kingsley avenue. His summer home is outside, but quite near, Asbury Grove.

MRS. SARAH MORGAN, widow of the late Charles H. Morgan, died at the Union Hospital, Lynn, Saturday evening, Sept. 4. Her maiden name was Sarah Davis, of Port Hawkesbury, N. S. She had been a member of St. Paul's church, Lynn, since 1858. The funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 7, Rev. D. H. Gerrish officiating, at the home of her niece, Mrs. John Hutt, Swampscott. Mr. Morgan passed away last March, and since that time Mrs. Hannah Clark, her sister, who made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Hutt, has had the care of Mrs. Morgan. She owned two cottages in Asbury Grove, where she lived summers for many years.

MR. GEORGE H. HIGGINS, one of the best known of the summer residents at the Grove, passed away at his cottage on Mudge avenue, Thursday morning, Sept. 9, as the age of 63 years. The immediate cause of death appeared to be heart failure. Mr. Higgins leaves a wife, Mrs. Nathalia Higgins, a leader in the United Order of Independent Odd Ladies' circles, also two sons, Lindville H. and George H. jr., and one daughter, Mrs. Ella Felton, and his aged mother, Mrs. Ruth Higgins, formerly of Beverly.

He was an active member of Saratoga St. M. E. church, E. B., being a member of the official board, also a class leader, and Sabbath School teacher and trustee, joining in full membership June 6, 1869, and was beloved by a large circle of friends. He had been married 39 years on the 25th of August. He was a member of the dry goods clerks' association and was highly esteemed for his sincere religious life, sympathetic disposition and exemplary integrity. Mr. Higgins was a veteran of the Civil war, which he entered at the age of 18. He was born July 3, 1846.

The funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. Charles H. Atkins, who paid a glowing tribute to his character, and were held at his late residence, 36 Falcon st., on Sunday afternoon. The Saratoga St. quartet sang "I'm a Pilgrim, I'm a Stranger," "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and "Abide with Me", favorite hymns of the deceased. There was a large attendance of friends, and the services, including the impressive ritual of the Odd Fellows, was attentively listened to. Many beautiful floral offerings testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held in East Boston, where the greater part of his life had been spent. The interment was at Woodlawn, where the burial service of the Methodist church was pronounced in the presence of a large company of friends by the pastor.
